Dedication

To walk into Pearson G is to get a small glimpse of Dr. Vincent Pascucci. The walls are lined with dusty chalkboards, plaster busts of Roman emperors, statues of gods and goddesses, and faded pictures of Roman landmarks. Everything about the room is old-fashioned, from the wrought-iron desks to Dr. Pascucci himself. His teaching methods are the same ones he experienced in the "the good old days of Yonkers, New York," as he often remarks before calling a student to the front of the room to translate lines upon lines of Latin dictation. But beyond the eccentricities, enigmas, and mountains of homework Dr. Pascucci's students encounter no one who has ever witnessed a more passionate teacher.

For the past 35 years, Dr. Pascucci has graced Andover's classes with his distinct teaching style. He lived for all 45 minutes of class. As soon as the bell rang, he was in his element. Within the first five minutes of class, his face flushed red, and his eyes already magnified by his thick glasses, grew even wider. He paced back and forth at the front of the room. He recited verb and noun endings with a resonant voice and boomed out lines of Latin, Italian and Greek, hardly stopping to take a breath.

Before Andover, Dr. Pascucci completed his undergraduate study at Columbia University in New York City, where he had planned to major in English literature. However upon meeting the legendary Gilbert Highet, who he still praised decades later as "a little above Socrates, a little bit above Plato, a little bit above Aristotle." Dr. Pascucci worked his way through Columbia University as a bartender, studying Latin between serving drinks. Shortly after graduating Dr. Pascucci began his teaching career at a public junior high school in Port Washington, New York. He eventually found his way to Andover in September of 1964, as a Classics instructor, where he spent the rest of his teaching career.

Here he has encouraged generations of students through their studies of the Classics. His enthusiasm remains unwavering, no matter what obstacles he faces. He has even overcome a debilitating stroke, suffered last winter, with his characteristically unflagging energy. Dr. Pascucci's passion and echoing orations are missed by all who were privileged enough to have been in his classes. Even Pearson G seems to harken back to the "good old Dr. Pascucci days" as its walls reflect their long-time companion in all their epic details.

Matt Garza? Jason French? That's right, the two big daddies of the Junior class. Not to mention our Junior Representatives. The beginning of our year started with uncertainty after hearing all the seniors go crazy for '01 at the first all school meeting, but the spirit and support of our Blue Key added a lot to the orientation process. Our experience got off to a great start this year after Will Scharf told us, "Don't vote for me because I'm sexy. Vote for me because I'm dead sexy." And so some of the girls in Nathan Hale took this seriously, having Jenny Wong promoting his number all over campus, 6892. And of course there are the day students. GW is awesome. The social life among the Juniors has been a booming one. The dances have been amazing with the chanting of "Elmo" among the inhabitants of Pease House. Some "cute?" relationships have developed this term. Ben and Ashley. Finally to summarize, the transition from living at home to boarding life I can use a single word, Rockwell. Ok so the word on the street is the dorm is a little dirty, even filthy. Maybe we play our Nirvana Mix CDs too loud. And maybe it is just the thought of 40 plus freshman guys living in a confined area, but it is not like that. It is the greatest dorm on campus. Take for instance our incredible dance. Maybe at the all school meetings we can't chant 4 years like many seniors but we are proud that we got 4 more to go babe. '04.

Lower Year

Lower year, HALLELUJAH! No more freshman inadequacy. At last, we are not the packs of freshmen traveling from Hale to Ryley each and every Saturday. Finally, we realize that the "cool" places to hang out aren't the lower level of the library or G-Dubs. Although the trek out to Hale is no longer made, we do travel to fine establishments such as Harrison's, McDonalds, and Peking. This is great but often times the lowers find themselves struggling with fifty Big Mac's for thirty ungrateful people. R.E.S.P.E.C.T., well ... we still don't have it. But at least we don't flounder on the bottom of the food chain. As we came back from our summer homes and jobs, we came back with a new half to our grade. As lowers we have added strong contributions to the varsity sports, the art shows, the music concerts, and theater productions. A voice, we might just be finding out what it means to have one on the student council. C.S., we signed up and we're in (most of us). Not only that, but there is a basement to the chapel. If you're now reading this, we actually survived life issues and P.E. ... two of the hardest classes at P.A. ... to stay awake in. Come one, come all, take the most difficult classes known to man/woman (political correctness courtesy of Life Issues): History 340 and 220 level languages. No, we're not seniors, but we're one step closer. We have had somewhat more lax parietals and we can almost see the door closing behind the opposite sex. After a year for some, two for most, we're falling into inimitable coherence (English 200: Expository Writing and Vocabulary); some could say that we're falling up.

While there are still enough hours in the day, we reflect on Upper Year. By the time anyone reads this, if legends are true, the class of '02 will be unable to comment. This spring we were thrust into the maw of bloodshot eyes and mounds of homework the mark of Upper Spring as the most dreaded of terms. Yet the transition from the lower half to the upper half of the PA hierarchy was a smooth one. Students took positions of leadership across the campus this year, whether leading as Varsity athletes, members of the Blue Key Society or Clustah superstars. We enjoy many perks, whether they are as infrequent as a relaxed in-room policy and closed-door parietals, or as anticipated as the table in Lower Right near the mirrors. The upper experience is not a uniform one by any means, whether the short paper wasn't nearly as short as you'd thought, or the long paper ended up stretching the definition of "long." Even those off-cycle students who were not involved in this process were forced to watch every gritty detail. While the Upper experience differs from person to person, we all have the kind of cohesive experience that will sustain us, we hope, through many long nights of Mountain Dew and the History 300 paper.

Oh-One, Oh-One, Oh-One, Mrs. Chase said it herself; the cadence of our cheer is better than ever. It matches our spirit, our pride and our record with college acceptances (our fingers are crossed). Senior fall was just as bad as the rumors told, but senior spring is just around the corner. Can you say slip-and-slide? Unfortunately, our list of gone-but-not-forgotten grew this fall, but we push on to graduation, masking chaos with good behavior. Andover-Exeter was soggy and despite defeat and rumors of faculty spies, alumni accomadations made for an exciting weekend. The smoothie bar was a welcome addition to Ryley; banana-strawberry, snaz-berry caffeine and banana-nut-bunch became the flava of downtown commons. G-Doubletown, Pine Mattress, and Four Seas by the See were among the most popular colleges and the Common Application made our lists explode by multiples of three-safeties, likelies, safeties. Tea was a pleasure-coffee, crumpets, and other uppers (not class of '02). Our 157-day celebration begins tomorrow and doesn't stop well into the grad parties. That's all, thanks for playing. Girls' Cross-Country

The members of 2000 girls' cross-country team proved themselves to be a potent mix of talent, depth, and determination. Despite a tough schedule, during which the girls were forced to travel away for all but one meet, the runners ran strongly, building a 4-2 regular season record. The team also managed to shut out Deerfield squad. Returning from last year, Heather Finn '03, Anne Riordan '03, Anne Thomas '02, Sarah Maxwell '02, Melissa Donais '01, Hilary Jay '02, Adrea Lee '01, and Becky Dann '01, helped to create a base of experienced runners. The team was also boosted by the talent of new runners Kathryn Moore '03, Shivaun Deena '03, Jess Watson '00, Jess Tory '02, Samantha Weisz, among many others. Donais fueled the team by breaking five course records and capturing many invitational championships throughout the season. With energy and spirit the girls headed down to Deerfield for the New England Championships. Donais won the varsity race in a record-breaking time, handily defeating her Exeter rival, the second-place runner in the meet. With the help of fast performances by the other varsity runners the girls' varsity placed third overall. The girls' JV team dominated their race. Anne Thomas and Jess Tory finished first and second in the race, with their teammates finishing close behind. Next fall, Interschols will be held at Andover, so the team looks forward to next year with high hopes and goals.

NEPSTA Interscholastic victories for the Varsity and were the culmination of a season of outstanding races, one of the more talented teams Phillips Academy has seen in years. The varsity recorded a perfect regular season record despite a tough schedule, which featured only one home race. Strong performances from West Fuhrman '01 and Pablo Durana '02 were remarkable, but the depth of the team was the cornerstone of the team's success. Great efforts from veterans like Fuhrman, T Justas '01, and Austin Arensberg '01 and newcomers like Durana, Geoff O'Donoghue '02, Pat Barkhof '01 and Nate Beck '01 paved the way. The outlook is good for next year too, with Durana, Mike Grant '03, O'Donoghue, Tony Bitz '01 and Dan Sullivan '02 all returning along with many more. Next year's season will also include more home meets, with PA hosting the upcoming 2001 Interscholastic Championships. The team looks forward to continuing its successful trend of the past few years.

The Andover Girls Soccer team went into this season with high expectations and a New England Championship behind us. Having graduated eleven seniors, we were excited to have the addition of many young, talented players.

Despite plaguing injuries during the preseason and much of the first few weeks, Andover continued to develop into a strong and ambitious team. Andover suffered a disappointing loss to Loomis Chaffee in our first season game, but used our determination and skill to rebound and win against Middlesex and Tufts JV. Other highlights included the annual game "under the lights" against Tabor, where the large support of fans helped us achieve a great win. The tough loss to St. Pauls gave the Big Blue a new determination, helping them to bring down the undefeated Deerfield team with a sweeping 5-2 victory on parent weekend.

Coming into Andover/Exeter weekend, Andover was excited about confronting our historic rival, and knew needed a win to better our chances for entering the New England Tournament. Exeter scored first, in what was a heated match from the first whistle but Andover was quick to answer back with a great goal. Unfortunately, Exeter managed to slide one last goal past the Big Blue in the second half, leaving the final score 2-1. Even though the Andover Girls Soccer team did not make it to the New England tournament this year, they worked hard and with their hearts to make it a great season overall!

Boys' Soccer 2000: 16-0-0 New England Semifinalists

It began in a log cabin in Maine. It ended in the log cabin at Andover. The unforgettable journey of this season will last in our hearts and the heart of Phillips Academy forever. The Andover soccer team of 2000 was founded on the belief that the successful team plays the game, both on the field and off, as one unit. We, the 22 players, 3 coaches and 2 managers, achieved our success through the powerful friendships that developed, allowing us to play the game as one. Thank you to our parents for all the support, time and effort you gave us. Thank you to the members of the faculty and to the students who cheered and supported us. Our success is immeasurably magnified because we shared it with you. The memories of this soccer season, and of this team, will forever hold a place in our hearts.

Goodbye from the seniors:

Scott Darci; Alex Bradley; James Kenly; Matt Aronson; Andrew Smith; Ian Taggart; Vikas Goela; Bryon Haughom; Emerson Sykes; Harris Ackerman.

Girls' Water Polo

Back Row: Wendell, S; Foxwell, E; Page, K; Chang, K; Adlman, H; Fourth Row: Frischkorn, V; Federico, N; Williams, L; Schroeder, H; Aloviseti, L; Strudwick, L (Coach); Idzick, E (Assistant Coach); Third Row: Thorton, E; Foster, A; Weiner, R; Ritchie, F; Heilweil, J; Benn, A; Nickerson, L; Second Row: Lind, C; Blitzer, Meg; Bartlett, K; O'Connor, K (Captain); Cowan, S; Freas, S; Murphy, D; Front Row: Ono, M; Walker, K; Anderson, A; Littlefield, B; Zicherman, T; Conner, K; Anderson, J.

The Andover Girls' Water Polo Team continued its aquatic excellence during the 2000 season. The team was led by Captain Kerry O'Connor and seniors Kate Bartlett, Meg Blitzer, Sophie Cowan, Sarah Ferranti, Ashley Foster, Sydney Freas, Jessica Heilweil, Devin Murphy, Frannie Ritchie, and Emily Thornton. Under the guidance of Coach Loring Strudwick and Assistant Coach Elizabeth Idzik, the girls finished the season undefeated at 9-0 and for the second consecutive year placed first at New England.

The season ended in ecstatic jubilation after a wildly exciting game against Loomis Chaffee at the New England Water Polo Tournament. Living up to their reputation as the best, the girls were able to defeat the team during a nail-biting overtime with a score of 9-0.

This clinched the title of the Andover girls' Water Polo Team as the New England Champions. Helping to continue its tradition of excellence for next year will be upcoming seniors Anneka Benn, Virginia Frischkorn, Caroline Lind, Lauren Nickerson, and Holly Schroeder. With the loss of eleven seniors, the team faces an uphill battle next year, but will no doubt, in true Andover fashion, certainly prevail.

Boys' Water Polo

Strong team unity and the hunger for victory carried this year's Water Polo team through one of their strongest seasons to date. The season began with a 5-4 victory over last year's second-place Loomis, a team that Andover faced during the first round of last year's Interschols. With the combined efforts of returning coach Scott Hoenig and leadership of the upperclassmen, the team got off to a solid start.

As a result of several losses to toss-up games, the team was seeded seventh into Interschols and was placed against second-seeded Choate during the first round. Andover came close to beating them with their powerful defensive and offensive skills, but as a result of a lucky break within the last five seconds of triple overtime, Andover was eliminated from the final four.

Led by Albert So, Dan Noll, Ben Neuwirth, Alex Thornton, David Hill, Greg Kimball and, goalie dam Arguelles, in combination with the reliable scorers, Jon Lo and Adam Green, Andover was still able to return from their loss and retain fifth place.

Although Coach Hoenig will not be returning next year, the team is looking towards another strong year. With the help of Assistant Coach Paul Murphy and rising players, Bryce Kaufman, Cameron Curtis, and Aaron Stroble, the prospects for next year's season look very hopeful.

- Greg Kimball

Girls' Field Hockey

Front Row: Von Walstrom, A; Anneberg, L; Gottlieb, B; O'Brien, M (Captain); Hudson, M (Captain); Locks, V; Suliman, M; Locks, S; Second Row: Noero, S; Burke, Oh, B; Barendseld, A; Smith, S; Mattison, A; Third Row: Dolan, K (Coach); Wessling, P; Tetrault, C; Cloyd, T; Liebermann, N; Hudson, M.

The Big Blue field hockey team made enormous strides in the 2000 season and ended with a record of 14-2-2. The girls scored a total of 39 goals and had 11 shutouts. The team also managed a 16-game unbeaten streak during the middle of the season, including great wins over Middlesex and Deerfield. A highlight was certainly the Big Blue victory over St. Paul's, who had been previously undefeated. The team then advanced to the New England Tournament seeded No. 2 and beat Deerfield once again in the first game. Despite an unfortunate loss in the semifinals, the girls had a tremendously successful season. Much of the team's success is thanks to the leadership of co-captains, Mariel O'Brien and Merri Hudson, and the team's seniors Michaela Sulliman, Brit Gottlieb, Lauren Anneberg, Arabella Von Walstrom, Sabrina Locks, and Vanessa Locks. With seven rising seniors, next year's team promises to be a very solid one. Congratulations to all and best of luck in the future.

Football

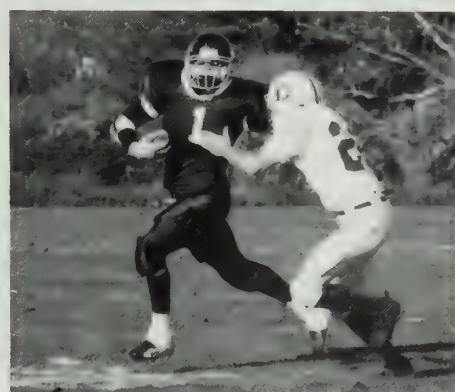

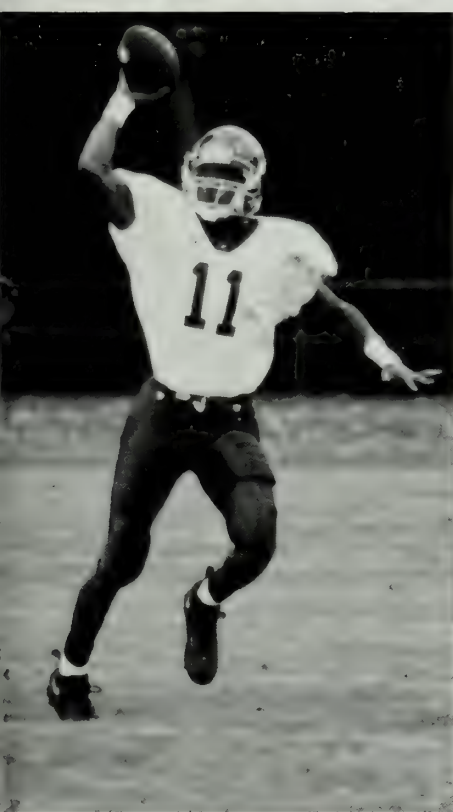

Front Row: Meacham, B; Rodriguez, J; Choi, K; McKinnon, A; Reist, T; Murname, C; Ginn, L; DeVos, A; Ward, S (Co-Captain); Winston, B (Co-Captain); Sinclair, Pearson, J; Dougherty, M; Butcher, C; Lemire, J; Cloonan, B; Myers, P; White, D; Hogan, B; Second Row: Felch, D; Malo, N; Adler, J; Horvath, M; St Peter, M; Se D; Judson, J; Winston, B; Simms, J; DeOssie, Z; Ward, A; Ngarjarah, A; Johnson, D; Harris, J; Boylan, D; Chang, B; Martignetti, F; Murphy, K; Third Row: McGrath (Asst. Coach); Modeste, L (Head Coach); Durant, N; Hopkins, S; Kerrison, E; Carter, S (Asst. Coach); Mundra, R (Asst. Coach).

The 2000 Andover Football team had a strong season despite their record of 3-5. Under the guidance of Coaches Leon Modeste and Lou Bernieri the team was able to capture wins over Loomis Chaffee, Choate and Deerfield. The team was led by senior co-captains Braxton Winston and Scott Ward. Other strong leaders included Damion White, Mike Hovath and Laredo Ginn. Unfortunately, Andover's solid defense was not able to hold back Hotchkiss, Kent or NMH and despite having the home field advantage Andover/Exeter Weekend

Andover lost another tough game at the hands of Exeter. With many strong rising seniors, the 2001 season looks promising. Ben Chang, Fred Martignetti, and Jonathon Judson hope to lead the team to victory next fall. Thank you to all of the coaches, fans and to all of the people who helped and supported the Andover football team this year. Good Luck to all of the seniors!

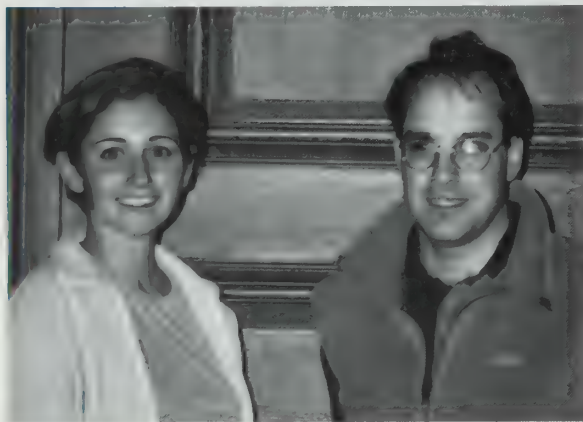

– Co-Captains Scott Ward and Braxton Winston

Girls' Volleyball

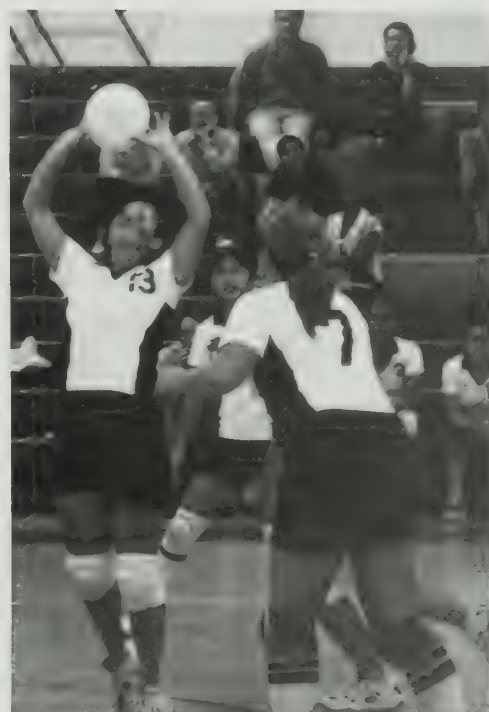

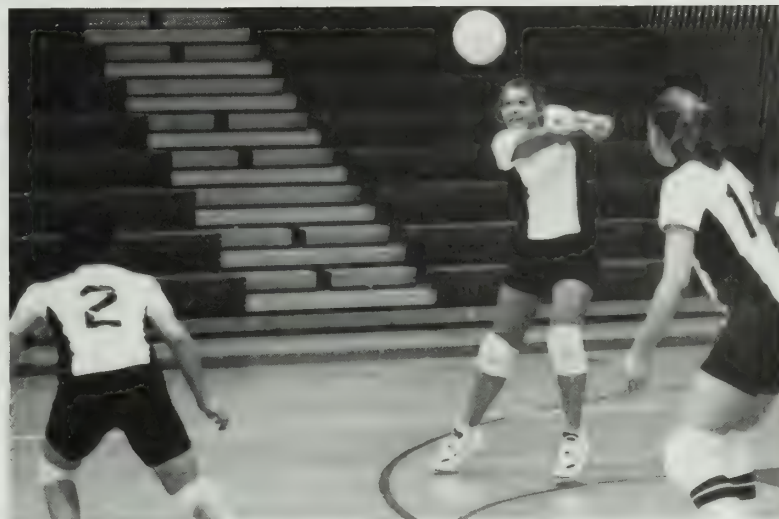

Front Row: Okike, C; Papanek, J; Yee, C; Second Row: Perkowski, L; Hartsock, S; Schellenberg, K; Conley, C. Third Row: Penley, C (Manager); Lau, S; Huang, V; Siepser, K; Cuthbert, G; Fourth Row: Beckwith, C (Head Coach); Hanley, M; Dickerson, D; Edwards, M (Asst. Coach).

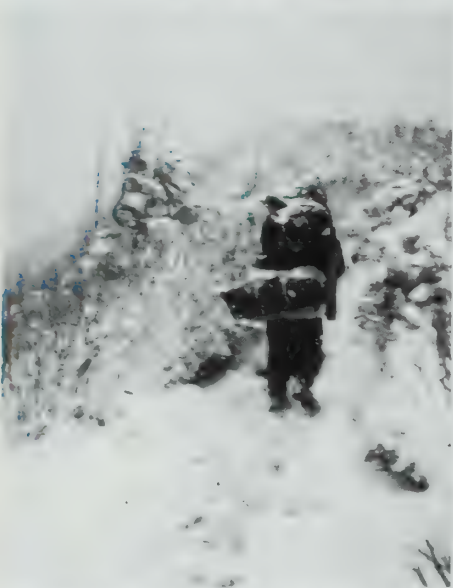

Julie Papanek '01 and Devon Dickerson '04 worked hard as setters to organize the Blue's offensive plays. Julie Papanek was the captain of this inspirational and versatile squad. Coaches Clyfe Beckwith and Marlys Edwards supported and led this talented team through its season. Beckwith believed that this was the best line-up of girls he had seen since he had started coaching the team. This season, varsity volleyball beat Loomis-Chaffee, Deerfield, St. Paul's, Dracut, No. Reading High, Choate, Cushing, and Hopkins, losing only to Exeter and NMH. The team was honored to host the New England Championships here at PA. Despite a hard-fought game, the team was knocked out of the championship by NMH in the semi-final round.

After winning the New England Championships last year, the Girls' Varsity Basketball came into the 2000-2001 season with high expectations and dreams of repeating. Although we graduated seven seniors last year, we looked to the seven returners, Heather Woodin '01, Christine Okike '01, Misty Muscatel '01, Alex Zukerman '01, Caroline Lind '02, Louisa Butler '02, and Danielle Vardaro '03, as well as newcomers Elizabeth Parfit '01, April Atiba '02, Meg Coffin '03, Krystal Freeman '03, Cortney Tetrault '03, and Mimi Hanley '04. Though we had a young squad, we quickly showed our opponents that we were ready to play. Our aggressive play, strong inside game, and solid outside shooting dominated against many of our opponents. Our outstanding record shows that we are not only prepared, but also competitors for the championship. We go into each game with the intensity and strength to play our best, striving to improve individually as well as a team. Our hard work has shown that we are one of the top teams in the league, and that we are ready to take on the challenge of repeating the New England Championships.

Boys' Basketball

The 2000-2001 season was a tough one for boys' basketball, but it was almost expected of the team, which graduated eleven seniors and returned only one, Captain Joe Lemire. The squad was fortunate to add new students and basketball talents Damion White and J.T. Simms. These three formed a strong core that was well complemented by a strong group of JV1 graduates that included Isaac Taylor, K.C. Osuji, Chris Godoy, Malik Lewis, Kwadwo Acheampong, David Frisch, Zak DeOssie, Adjatay Nyadjroh, and Rory Gallagher and cluster convert, Thibault Raoult.

Andover plays at the highest level in the most demanding league in the country, NEPSAC level A. In such a competitive conference, experience is important and that's exactly what this team needed most. It may not have been the most talented team, but it showed a lot of heart finishing the season with the same tenacity with which it started. The players never gave up and fought intensely until the end. Despite a record of (as of 2/14) 3-15, the Big Blue kept fighting valiantly and hanging tough with more athletic squads. The season opened with a bang as Andover pounced all over Holderness with a 34-point win in front of the home crowd. After that promising start, though, the season was marred by blown leads and second-half collapses. The team did, however, rally to beat Loomis and then upset a strong Exeter club with a 76-70 decision at home in the two teams' first meeting.

On the whole, the team showed good character and worked hard. It was a rebuilding year for a program decimated by graduations, but next year's team should fare better because it will have loads of experience and will be led by next year's captain J.T. Simms.

Girls' Hockey

The girls' varsity ice hockey team had a rebuilding season this year with the loss of six seniors from the 1999-2000 season. Led by seniors Merri Hudson, Caitlin Krause, Abby Bowen, Erin Vehec and Emily Izenstein, the team was most successful at the Taft Invitation Christmas Tournament. After losing by one goal in overtime to hockey powerhouse Tabor Academy, the girls beat Groton and St. Paul's to take home third place in the tournament. The first line of Vehec, Krause and Marissa Hudson '04 have accounted for most of the goal production for the Big Blue, with help from defenseman Ali Mattison '02. Goalies O'Hara Shipe '04 and Kathleen Minahan '03 have shared the duty in net and have backboned the Andover defense. Anna Barenfeld '02, Liz Colburn '02, Susannah Orzell '03, Audrey Deguire '04 and Jenn Vanecek '04 have added strength and depth to the Andover lines. With the loss of only five seniors next year, the team will look to its younger players to step up and fill the important roles.

Boys Hockey

Despite the loss of 10 seniors and the return of only 5 players with significant experience, the '00-'01 Boys Varsity Hockey team had a successful season. With four games left, the team was on pace to a respectable .500 season, with a 12-10-1 record. Throughout the year, many first year players earned regular shifts and continually contributed to the team. Thanks for a strong senior leadership, the team stuck together through many ups and downs. Frequent injuries to key players, and the ability to fill these voids exemplifies the dignified character of this team.

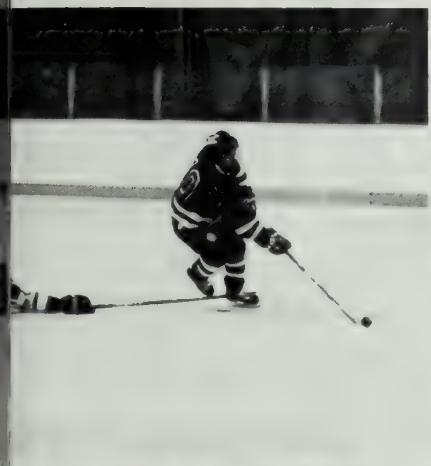

After the Flood-Marr tournament, the team had a 5-5 record going into winter break. Facing an extremely tough schedule, the Blue lost 4 of the first 6 games after the break, to 4 tournament-bound teams. The highlight of the season came during that stretch, the team went on to win 6 of the next 7, with the only loss being a controversial 2-1 overtime thriller to 2nd ranked Deerfield. The team avoided all possible upsets, and won many close games.

Through good and bad, each player's grit and determination allowed us to exceed pre-season expectations. And what better way to cap off the season than a sweep over rival Exeter!

- Coach Boylan - Thank you for all your time and effort, through thick and thin you were there. In a very tough situation, you were infinitely calm and poised, as well as readily available to help the guys. For the first of hopefully many great years, we thank you.

- Scott Ward and Steve Meacham

Girls' Squash

This winter, the girls' varsity squash team placed fifth at the New England Interscholastic Tournament at Groton after a solid season of regular match play. Under the guidance of Coach Tom Hodgson, the team persisted through injury, combatted illness, and sprinted up many flights of stairs to, as Mr. Hodgson put it, "deserve to win."

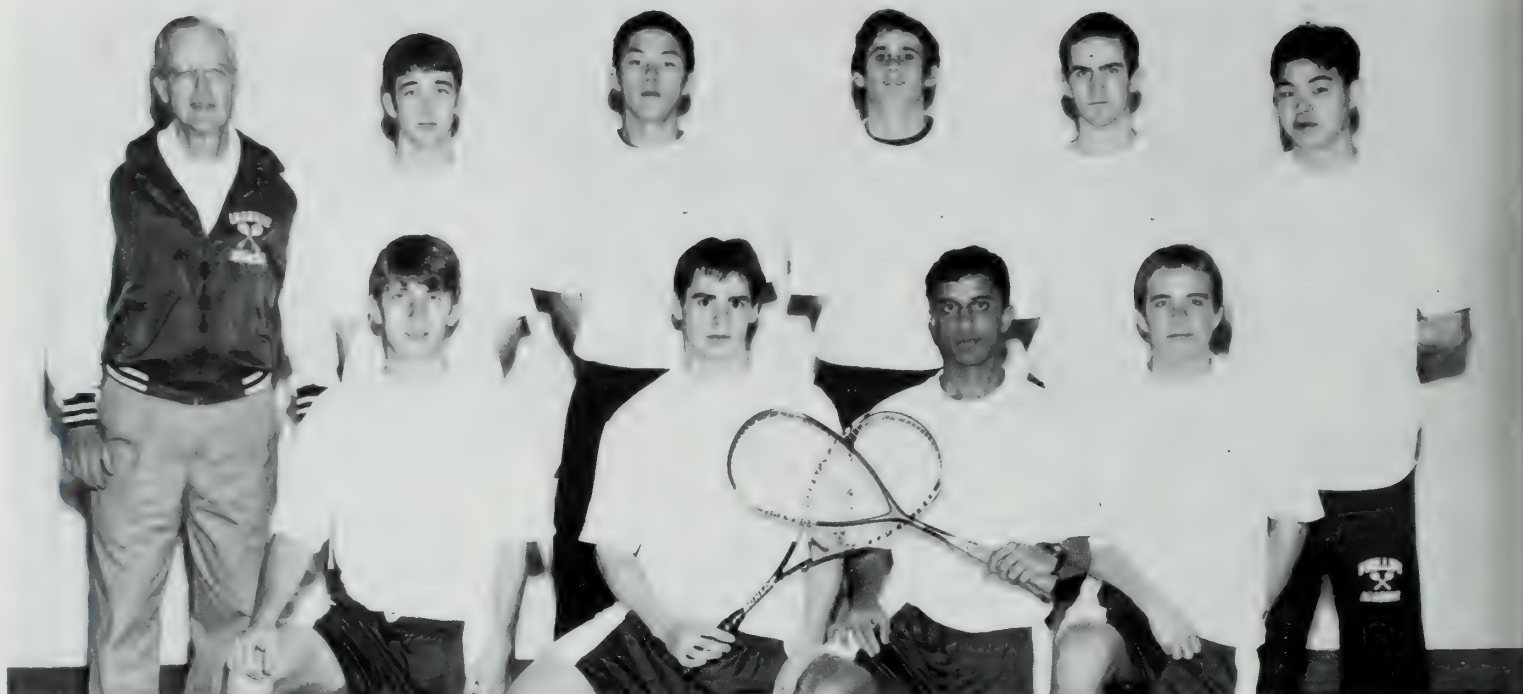

The numerous highlights of the season include the pounding of the rival Exeter team. The team not only won the match 7-0, but also dropped only a single game in the process. In addition, the team posted wins over Nobles, Taft, Middlesex, Brooks, Groton, St. George's, Tufts, and Milton. The team lost to St. Paul's, Choate, and Deerfield.

The team returned this season having graduated three of the top four players leaving returning team members: Jess Olans '01, Captain Wendy Huang '01, Liza Roberts '02, and Sandra Leung '02. Helen Ho '01, Diane Liu '02, Diana Dosik '02, and Emily O'Brien '03 stepped up to the challenge and seamlessly filled in and strengthened the ladder. The team also gained new upper Jess Tory, who spearheaded the team's efforts at the number one position.

The 2000-2001 Boys' Squash team enjoyed one of the most successful seasons in recent memory. Assisted by the return of coach Tom Cone, co-captains Nate Beck '01 and Nakul Patel '01 led a dominating top seven comprised of returning players Will Simonton '03, Vikas Goela '01, and James Chung '01, bolstered by former JV players Dan Cote '02 and Lyle Fearnley '01. En route to a near-perfect 13-1 record the team overcame numerous perennially strong teams including Groton, Choate, Belmont Hill, and, of course, Exeter. The lone defeat came in the form of a close 4-3 loss versus long-established powerhouse Taft early in the season.

The team started the season faced with the loss of two of the top five from the previous year. A strong returning foundation remained to anchor the team, with each member having improved during the off-season, but there remained holes to be filled. A strong group stepped up to fill the gaps, with Jeff Sandman '02, John Kwaak '01, Ian Taggart '01, and the before mentioned Cote and Fearnley all making big leaps from JV. The team improved drastically as the season progressed and picked up win after win. Going into the New England Interscholastics the team had reached its peak and was poised to upset favorites Taft and Brunswick.

The Andover 2000-2001 Girls Varsity Swimming and diving team had a remarkable season of fast swims and new records. Led by a host of veteran seniors Meg Blitzler, Sophie Cowan, Sarah Ferranti, Ashley Foster, Sydney Freas, Jessica Heilweil, Devin Murphy, Kerryn O'Connor, Emily Thornton, and Maeva Bambuck and combined with a group of talented underclassmen with uppers Lauren Nickerson, Anneka Benn, Beth Foxwell, and Helen Spink, lowers Sarah Demers and Jane Anderson and Juniors Kate Page and Kristina Chang, the girls took to the water to dominate the season.

The girls' team contained a lot of depth in the water to win the dual meet and give the girls an 8-0-1 record. Divers Liz Lasater, Katie Dybwad, and Janis Scanlon dove gracefully and boosted the team to another undefeated season. Swimming coaches Paul Murphy, Ginger Fay, and diving coach Belinda Wolf coached the girls and were supportive during this incredible season.

Kate Page '04 set three new school records in the 200 Freestyle, 200 Individual Medley, and 500 Freestyle. The girls' season started off with a win against Choate. From there, the team went on to defeat Loomis Chaffee, Northfield Mount Hermon, Deerfield, Hopkins, New England Barracudas, Worcester, Suffield, and Williston Northampton, and Exeter. After another amazing season, the girls proved that they were ready to once again dominate the pool at the interscholastic swimming Championships and hopefully bring home the first place trophy to cap off the season.

Andover swimming faced difficulty during the beginning of the 2000-2001 season against Choate, losing in a tie-breaker 400 freestyle relay at the end of the meet, but surged ahead of its opponents during the rest of the season. With the help of a returning lower base from Cameron Curtis '03, Brian Fiske '03, Dave Hill '03, Bryce Kaufman '03, Gavin Kuangparichat '03, and super class leadership from Neuwirth '02, Jon Lo '02, Adam Green '01, Dan Noll '01, captain Albert So '01, and new freshman Aaron Stroble, the swim season propelled its season record to 8 and 2.

Incoming swimmer and diver Raul Randt '04 and returning diver J.C. Macmillan '03 proved to be a comparative stronghold for diving for the coming years. During the middle of the season, Andover emerged convincingly victorious in a dual meet against powerhouse Suffield and Williston, winning or tying all its events. Andover looks to become even stronger next season with two incoming post-graduates, and perhaps has the shot of becoming New England champions. Look out for this team next season – they'll be making waves.

The girls indoor track team had an amazing season. We look forward to finishing our undefeated season by smoking the Exies on February 21. The team has shown strong performances in every event, making our team simply untouchable.

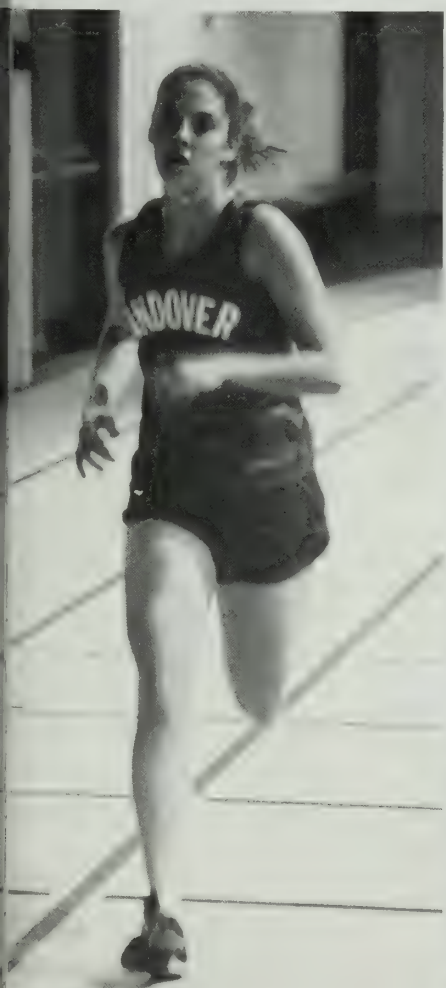

The distance crew has had a great season with both new and returning athletes running well. Melissa Donais is pushing the five-minute mile mark, and Sam Weisz is tearing up the two-mile track.

Sprints have owned their piece of the track with Katie Dlesk and Chelsea MacDonald leading the way, and the relay team is just unfair if you're not wearing blue.

The field events have followed the runners' in strength with jumps and shotput always increasing their distances.

The track team would like to thank our amazing coaches for an incredible season.

Perennially the most successful team on campus, the boys' indoor track team has been in familiar form in the 2001 season. We are a team with few dominators such as upper newcomer Pablo Durana, but our depth, especially in longer distances and shot put, has served us well. The extraordinary success of the boys' cross-country team boded well for a strong indoor season and things have developed as expected. Our talented distance crew has provided vital points with the absence of a true sprinting star. We have taken care of the two top teams in the Merrimack Valley and chances are good that we will avenge last year's sole flaw in our record when we meet Exeter and complete a perfect season. Additionally, both at the Dartmouth and Wheaton Invitationals our top runners have shown everyone what Andover track is about: focus, respect, and of course, excellence.

Nordic Skiing

Front Row: Larsen, P (Asst. Coach); Warren, A; Ito, R; Hubbard, W (Captain); Penley, C; Schroeder, H; Brown, J; Bellapravalu, V; Hume, K; Carlisle, D (Head Coach)
Second Row: Ryan, P; Anderson, S; Wilkinson, C; Silverstein, S; Dames, F; Byer, J; Siguler, W

The Nordic team was a combination of a few veterans and an infusion of new skiers, with the results predictably mixed.

The guys' team, led by four-year varsity racers Winslow Hubbard and Colin Penley, did fairly well, but the team lacked depth. NEPSAC relays only served to highlight the problem, despite a strong effort by the new skiers.

The girls' team retained a strong nucleus from the year before, and received an infusion of new talent. Led by freshman Suzie Anderson, the girls finished a strong fourth in NEPSAC's. The team did well during the season as well, building the foundations of what is sure to become a very strong team. New assistant coach Chris Larson was a great addition while learning on the job. To put it kindly, 2000/01 was a rebuilding year, and the team looks towards greater success next season.

Andover Wrestling has had a rebuilding year of sorts, but has still managed to finish the year strong thanks to some strong individual performances. With 8 seniors gone from last year's team, the road was expected to be difficult, and the regular season finished with an 8-9 record, 6-6 in league. Big wins came against Choate and Moses Brown. Charlie Aloviseti (8-3), Nick Mele (10-5), and Kevin Sinclair (10-6) were all seniors who finished with strong records, while seniors Pete Myers and Frank Brodie both started on Varsity and came up with several strong performances. Senior Ben Hogan also filled in the lineup and did well for his first year. Other consistent contributors on varsity included Dan Shvartsman, who finished the regular season 17-0, Harry Boileau, who went 13-2 on the year, Pawan Deshpande, who despite wrestling a heavy weight still managed to have a good season, and Andrew Ward, who proved to be a tough match for opponents throughout the year. Freshmen who cracked the lineup included varsity 103 Tom Treat, who despite missing much time showed a lot of improvement, Jeff Pena, another first year wrestler who finished 4-3, and Leon Fay, a judo fighter who used his skills for the first time wrestling and did an impressive job, wrestling older and bigger kids all year. Leanna Boycheko became the first full-time female starter on Varsity in Andover history and continually battled with stronger and more experienced opponents. At 152, Erik Sun, Isreal Matos, and Doug Presley all split time and had solid seasons. At 275, first year wrestler Jon Judson showed some promise, defeating Class A place winners during the season before succumbing to an ankle injury for the year. At the Class A tournament Andover placed 6th, despite missing 4 weights. Shvartsman placed 1st, Boileau 2nd, Aloviseti and Sinclair 3rd, Mele 4th, and Deshpande 6th. Andover is already looking forward to improving on these results next season.

MOM & DAD: THANK YOU FOR THIS UNBELIEVABLE OPPORTUNITY. I LOVE YOU GUYS SO MUCH, "I'M NOT GONNA LIE TO YA!" CHRISTINE: YOU'RE BIGGER AND HAVE LEFT ME WITH LARGE SHOES TO FILL, BUT I'VE LOVED BEING YOUR LITTLE SIS. KEEP KICKING BUTT! BLAKE: I'VE MISSED YOU THESE PAST THREE YEARS, BUT I COULDN'T BE MORE PROUD OF YOU, BIG GUY. GOOD LUCK NEXT YEAR!

DAY HALL: I LOVE YOU ALL! REMEMBER THE PRANKS, TUESDAY NIGHT TEAS, FIGHTS, BINGE-FESTS, AND DANCE PARTIES. THANKS FOR GIVING ME SUCH A WONDERFUL HOME. KATE, MARTHA & LISA: THANK YOU FOR BELIEVING IN ME AND ALWAYS BEING THERE FOR SUPPORT. FIELD HOCKEY & LAX: SOME OF MY BEST MEMORIES – WE WILL ALWAYS DOMINATE! GO BIG BLUE!

LIZ: TO THE ONE WHO KNOWS ME BEST, THANKS FOR ALWAYS BEING THERE. I'M LUCKY TO HAVE A FRIEND LIKE YOU. I WISH YOU THE VERY BEST IN THE FUTURE ... LOVE! LIBBY: THANKS FOR PUTTING UP WITH ME FOR TWO WHOLE YEARS! YOU ARE AN IDEAL ROOMMATE AND A LOYAL FRIEND. I KNOW YOU WILL GO FAR IN LIFE AND I HOPE WE WILL KEEP IN TOUCH. CAITLIN: YOU SURE HAVE TAUGHT ME QUITE A FEW THINGS. YOU WILD AND CRAZY GIRL. WE ALL LOVE YOU, WHETHER YOU LIKE IT OR NOT. (CAN I HAVE A HUG NOW?) MARIEL: NEVER STOP BEING YOURSELF AND CUTTING LOOSE – STAY CRAZY AND COLOR-COORDINATED. ETERNAL FRESHMEN: GOOD- LUCK NEXT YEAR, AND COME VISIT! I'LL MISS YOU GUYS.

URSA MAJOR: IT WILL ALWAYS HAVE BEEN WORTH IT. TIVOLI. EVERYONE ELSE: THANK YOU FOR MAKING MY THREE YEARS HERE SO INCREDIBLE AND MEMORABLE. I HAVE LEARNED SO MUCH AND WILL TAKE A LITTLE BIT OF EACH OF YOU WITH ME AS I LEAVE. I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU ALL! LUCK & LOVE, LAUREN.

I want to thank all the people who made my stay here so enjoyable. You know who you are.

Sem minha família essa página não existiria, por essa razão essa página é dedicada à vocês. Quero agradecer meu pai e minha mãe por terem me proporcionado essa jornada de tres anos de aventura. Quero agradecer a Virna por ter sido um exemplo positivo, uma pessoa extraordinária. Eu sempre a segui e por isso ela é responsável por grande parte do meu sucesso. Também admiro a Lara muito. Sua paciência e seu gênio sempre me impressionaram e me ensinaram muito. Tenho que agradecer ao Lucas por ter sido meu companheiro e ter dividido grande parte da minha vida comigo. Obrigado à minha família e à todos que ficaram no Brasil torcendo por mim.

To my loving tam → Mami: my inspiration, a girl I love you

Papi: I love you, I'm truly blessed to have a pop like you

Chelo: Tu eres la tia mas preciosa del mundo Jenser & Wendy: my companions, my best friends ... my sisters, thank you ... (oh nooo, we're growing up so fast)

Johnny Antonio: You're my lucky star, I love you bro. To all my peoples at home especially Mercy, Idalia, Jamal, Max, Mildred, & Nelson. To my girl Kaia: words can't express (we've never been too much for words) ... I can't imagine my life without your friendship, it's all love.

Sheena: "I'll be the one to catch your fall, whenever you call."

Shanna: My one and only roomie → "You had me at hello ... (tear)."

Nekia: "As I watch you move, I am moving too ... I am moved by you."

Raquel: "Unforgettable, that's what you are."

Jadele: "Una ventura, es mas bonita"

Casi: "No hay nadie como ella, tan dulce, tan bella."

You girls have been my support and saviors many a time, I love you, here's to our future.

Josh: The one came here with ... and the one I would always love to come back to. Brad:

... I love you too. K.C.: For all that could have been, & that is ... I love you. Andrew:

Hugs and kisses! Brax: What can I say? (I'm choking up, oh!) ... Let's do lunch (and I'll try to be on time). A special shout-out to Nickole, Rey, Julie, Ashley W-S, Emerson, Eugene, Yanique (I miss you girl), Clement House (1997-'98), & of course all my girls in Day Hall

tal, Magalita, Itiah, Sharon, Benny boy, Malik, Brandon, Jon, Derrick, Jordan, Kwadwo, Etzerson, Kanyi ... the list goes on: make it hot, some like it hot. Freshmen: you're a special group, represent to the fullest like I know you can. Alyssa, a true sweetheart, don't ever change. For the big people: Dickie (love you lots), Ceci (you are truly a masterpiece), Mr. White (Blanco!), the Maquelas (an extended fam.), Mr. Edwards (superstar!), Ms.

Lewis (I couldn't have asked for a better mother away from home), Mrs. Sykes, Ms.

Jordan, Jon (ghetto crackerjack), Ms. Cornelius, Mr. Rob. (Eats Sr.), all those in Graham

House, & Mrs. (Cooper) Doheny. Much respect and love to those I was close to in the classes that came before: 2000, '99 and '98 → my prefects Sunyin and especially Cycette

(the originator of Fannie) my first year would have not been as wonderful without you.

SLAM: step on, step on. A.S.I. → memories I will keep in my heart forever. For those of you I forgot to mention or who I got to know this year, just because you're not on paper doesn't mean I don't love ya, you know what the deal is. =]

Mom and Dad - I guess, "sending me away" wasn't that bad after all. I'll be sure to write when I find work

Chuck - You got me through this place in one piece, and made sure I wasn't too big a loser

Coach Stableford - You took me into your home, listened to my problems, and believed in me when no one else would. What more could I have asked for? Thank you for the best four years of my life

Anna and Nat - Y'all made sure I was taking care of myself, and helped me through my hardest times. I am indebted to you both

Isaac - Two years rooming together and we're still friends! What can I say about the guy who put a lacrosse stick in my hands? Thanks for your open ears to all my issues along the way

Luke - We grew up together! Four years later, there is no one I'd rather spend a Saturday night with. Your family has been more kind to me than I ever deserved. Thank you for everything

Bishop '00 - You guys taught me what Andover is. Because of you, I learned that I could be myself. Thanks for two years of craziness (and the dorm painting)

To My Family: Thank you for all the support during these past four years. I couldn't have completed them without you. To D: Who everyday reminds me that Bavarian is best. Thanks To Ober: Who never let me discount the underdog. Keep running. To P and G: Who never let me forget that there is more to PA than work. To Red and Jeffo: Who taught me there is always next year for the Sox. To MM: Who never let me down. To Newman, Ram, and the Stearns boys: Who always gave me a place to hang out other than the Day Student Locker Room. To KC: Who is a perfect example of a hard-working student. Keep it up. To Mele: Who was always willing to give a little food. To all my teachers and anyone else who I forgot to mention: Thank you for four unforgettable years. Memories that I have made here will last a lifetime. Finally, I would like to give a special shout-out to the Fudruckers, Gino's, and Friendly's crews- undoubtedly some of the best memories I have from my time at PA.

Thanks to all my family

To Mom, for always picking a good movie, and for being my closest friend and companion for the past four years.

To Dad, whose unconditional love, assistance, and support has enabled me to keep my goals high, and to always do my best.

To Alistair, whose irreplaceable friendship and guidance has been the cause of, and solution to, all of my problems.

To Ben, whose socks look strangely like mine, and who has always been a great friend and someone to count on.

To Emma and Fred, my two best friends, who, despite their laziness, greeted me at the door every single day.

And to all my friends along the way (SK, EA, RM, RS, CY, MW, AL, HH, JD)

Mom, Dad, and Anne—Thank you for your unwavering love and support. Without you my incredible Andover experience wouldn't have been possible.

Meg—You are the definition of a perfect friend. You have taught me so much about myself and who I want to become. Follow your dreams, I love you. Horses and Poles.

Greggie—Somethings are just meant to be. I don't think I could live without you and I know I never will. The last four years have been amazing but they are only the start...no matter what, I'll still call you Superman. I love you forever and a day...

Spence—You've always been there for me and known exactly what to say. You're an amazing person always believe in yourself.

James—It's been a bumpy ride, but I wouldn't trade it for anything. I always knew you were there for me. Oh...by the way, I WIN!

You will make all kinds of mistakes; but as long as you are generous and true and also fierce you cannot hurt the world or even seriously distress her. She was made to be wooed and won by youth.

-Winston Churchill

Mom and Dad - Thank you so much for everything; I owe it all to you. I love you!

Aura - You will always be my best friend, no matter what. I promise.

B - You are the best, funniest, coolest person I know. We made a man!

Shneides - You're still a mooch, but you're a great friend. And no, I still don't want 2 CDs.

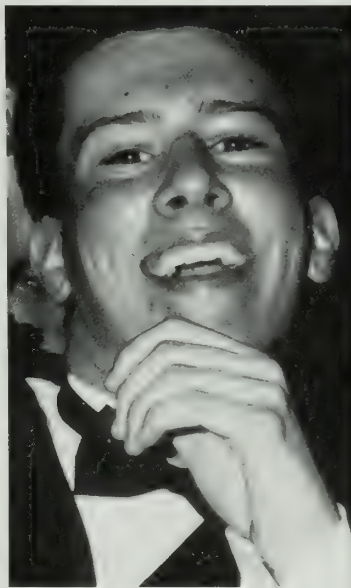

Ben - I have a feeling we end up living in the same town someday!

Annie and Shira - You two will always be my girls! Yeah 2 years!

My amazing teachers - You are what make Andover so great. Thank you!

Everyone at PA and in my life - You make me glad to be alive. I cherish all of you, thank you for being part of my life!

Terri Bueller - "Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it."

For the people who come to mind there is nothing I can write that does my love for you justice. I'm surrounded by a bunch of fucking geniuses who actually believe they're not good enough. Shame on you. You're incredible, deal with it. You've helped to ensure that I'm not the same person I was junior year and for that I am forever in debt to you. thank you.

To Stephanie:
I love you the mostest
You amaze me with your maturity.
You are an artist.
You are truly beautiful so get used to it, you're going to hear that a lot.
I am so proud of you.
Please learn from my mistakes, be strong and wise enough to love yourself.
I caught it, did you catch mine?

Never let me tell you what to do. Hell, don't even let me tell you not to let me tell you what... wait... nevermind.

That's ma Bunni!
She taught me everything she knows!

Elizabeth Anne Illia-Schäfer

Meg Blitzer

Mom and Dad I love you so very much. Without you I wouldn't be who I am today. Thank you for your endless love and support.

Jay You're the best big brother anyone could ever ask for. Thank you for everything you've given me. I love you!

Bart "A true friend knows the song in your heart and sings it to you when you have forgotten it." I couldn't ask for a better friend. Thank you for everything, especially the memories past and those yet to come, I will treasure them always.

Emelia Even though we've been apart you've always been there for me. I can't thank you enough. Shoot for the stars girl, they're all yours.

Spence You never cease to amaze me. You're going to excel at whatever you choose to do. Thank you for everything you've done for me these past few years, it means the world to me.

Greg From the hokey pokey to a shoulder to cry on you have always been there when I've needed someone to turn to. Thank you for always being in my corner.

To everyone who keeps me dreaming, laughing, wondering, crazy, loving and complete: coaches, teachers, family and friends...thank you!

ABIGAIL BOWEN

"You know at one time, I used to break into pet shops to liberate the canaries. But I decided that was an idea way before its time. Zoos are full, prisons are overflowing... oh my, now the world still dearly loves a cage."

Meredith: "City girls just seem to find out early..." I would have been 2nd to no one else. My love and adoration to you two.

Isabel: 14 years of love to my other half.

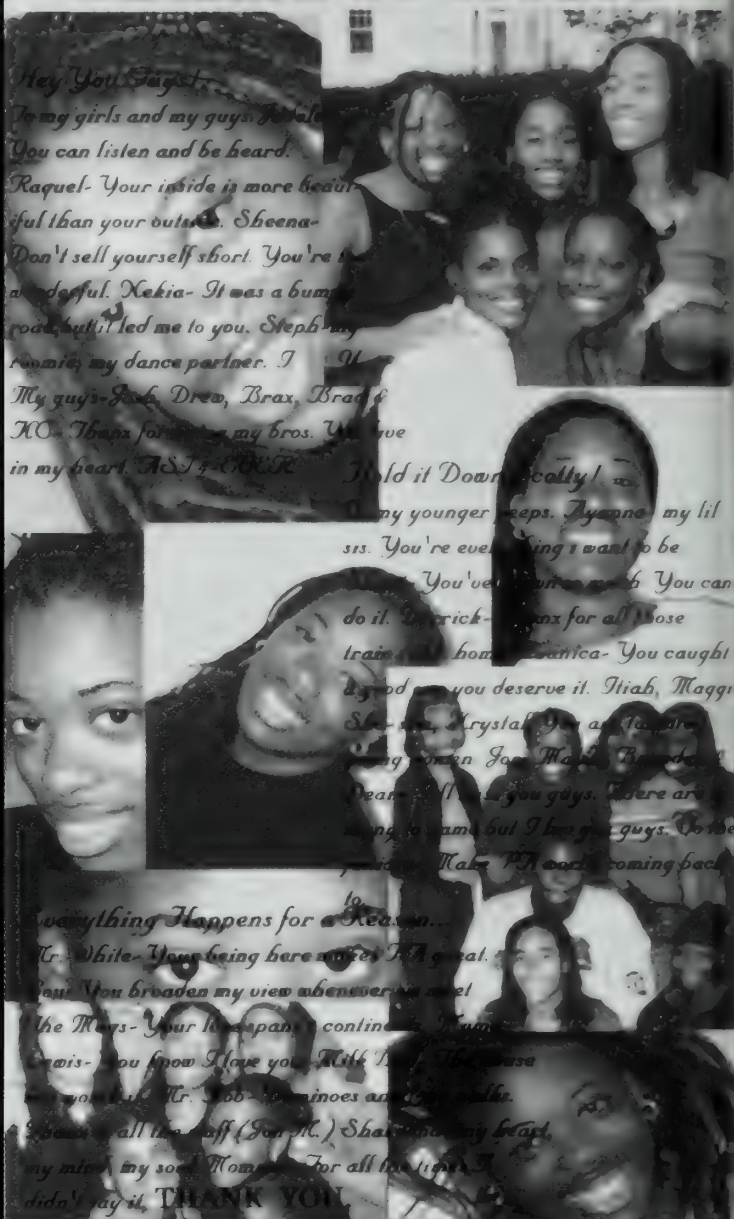

Alex: "Now our luck may have died and our love may be cold, but with you forever I'll stay."

Brine: "... And the fog forming on my window tells me the mornin's com' and you'll be gone before too long..." I love you Brine.

The Rest of the L-Family: 2 years of kings. My love to you both.

And of course, Mummy and Dad... I can't say enough. My love and gratitude.

Shanna R Bowie

Hey You Forget

To my girls and my guys. I love

You can listen and be heard.

Raquel- Your inside is more beautiful than your outside. Sheena-

Don't sell yourself short. You're a wonderful. Nekia- It was a bumpy road, but it led me to you. Steph- my roomie, my dance partner. I

My guys- Josh, Drew, Brax, Brad &

XC. Thanks for being my bros. You live in my heart. A.D. I love you

Hold it Down, Scotty! I

my younger peeps. Tyanna, my lil

sis. You're everything I want to be

You've got it right. You can do it. Derrick- I anx for all those trainin' home. Tanica- You caught a good one you deserve it. Itiah, Maggi,

Shanna, Crystal, you are all the best. I love you guys. There are many to come but I love you guys. Go the pride. Make it back coming back to everything Happens for a Reason.

Tr. White- Your being here makes it a goal.

didn't say it. THANK YOU.

To my family: Thank you Mom and Dad for your love and support especially the food deliveries and giving me the opportunity to come to Phillips Academy. Rob, keep up the great work at SJP and enjoy the weekends. I love you all very much.

Bartlett: This dorm was the best of times and I owe all to you guys. Thanks for the memories.

BV Soccer: I love this game and every team that I have been on in my four years here will always be a part of me. This years team has shown me more heart, character, and team work than anything I have ever been a part of and I thank you for that. Darc and Kenly - It's been a long haul, and I've enjoyed every minute of it with you guys, but we still have "one more road to cross."

Coach Scott: You've given me a new found respect for the game. Thank you for instilling in me the values of teamwork and character. They are values that I will carry with me in life and for this I am truly thankful.

Scotter: You've been an outstanding friend and I think we've been on one hell of a ride... sure got some good stories.

Rob: We've had some good times and you've always made me laugh. Thanks for being there and make sure not to stress out from all that work you do. I look forward to celebrating our graduation with a trip to Vegas.

Mr. Cardozo and Mrs. White (Ice Cube): You guys are the best House counselors at this school and you have made my stay at Bartlett a truly memorable experience.

Teachers and faculty: Thank you Dr. Pascucci, Mr. Gurry, Mr. Cone, Mrs. Scott, Mr. Kuhlmann, Mr. Bewig and any others that I may have briefly forgotten, for giving me the knowledge and values to succeed in life.

Dr. Portie: You are truly a great teacher and a wonderful person. You have made me a more active learner and a more introspective student and for this I thank you.

I normally don't have much to say, and this is no exception. I just want to thank all of my teachers and wish my classmates the best — may all your dreams come true.

Good times baby! It's been 3 years of everything, and I wouldn't have wanted it any other way. Thanks to everybody who helped me do it. My Family – you had faith and put up with me, thank you for everything. Chateau de Shaggin '99: Paa, Cropp, Cap, Wes, Joe – We survived boys! We had a wild ride, keep it real and have fun. Dough, Slow, Mele, Kenels, Charlie – Through thick and thin, we kept it together, I had no doubts. Work hard, play hard, try and remember it all the next morning. It has been awesome, you guys made it possible. Thanks boys. BP, GS, MF, AM, JR, JK, RP, SD, EC, JF, PR, HB: Thanks for keeping it fun, and being there. I couldn't have done it without all of you. Kel – Thanks baby. Smile. Mr. V, Succi, Mr. Crawford, Mr. Barry, Coaches Gorham, Efinger, Sung, Mr. Heelan – You believed in me and kept me on track in every respect, thank you. Honorable mention: GB, JD, BL – for better or worse.

Jennifer Bronsor

"Obstacles are the things you see when you take your eyes off your goals"

Mom – I couldn't have made it through these past four years without you. Thank you so much for all the love and support that you gave me even when I told you I didn't need it. You were, and always will be, there for me and because of that I thank you. I love you.

Dad – Without you, dad, I wouldn't have been able to pursue my dream of attending PA. You always believed in me even when I didn't believe in myself. For that, I thank you and I love you.

Kristin & Stacy – Thank's for putting up with me for the past four years! I hope that I have lived up to your expectations of an older sister – I know you two have for me! I love you guys!!

Amanda & David – I missed you guys these past two years!! I hope that you never forget how much you mean to me and how much I love you!

Nannie & Pop-Pop – You two are the best grandparents anyone could ask for. Thank you and I love you.

Katie – You have been my best friend for twelve years, always there for me when I needed you. We have been through so much together – BFF! I love you!! I will never forget: BSCG!! Wild Bill, "ask me again!!" Suction cup to my what!!!! Long trips to VT – milking the "clean" cow. I can't believe that we paid that much for Red Sox tickets – what were you thinking!!!!

Laura – I can't begin to say how much your friendship has meant to me over the past few years, I don't think I could have made it through them without you. You were always there for me and for that I am grateful. I'll never forget: that trip to Best Buy ... then Chili's!! how we could never get enough Freddie Prinze Jr ... don't wig out on me!! Nomar really is my boyfriend ... Turtle Bay, you can't go to bed until you finish that entire bottle of water!! Hey, should we key his car? Ryan and Dana, God's gift to ... me!! Steve Miller Band ... oh god, I have to drive home!! Hey, I swear, your dad really is in the Mafia!!

Rachel – You are probably the most scatterbrain person I know, but I wouldn't want you to change!! Your friendship has helped me grow and for that I thank you. Waterpolo '99 and always remind me not to drive with you!! I love ya!!

Amita – Each year we have become better friends and for that I am truly thankful. From those long nights in Garver to debating over whether or not we should actually go to Basics, you were always there!! I love you!!

Shout outs: All my boys here – M.D., E.C., C.W., and way too many other chill kids to name, you know who you are (Ward, "McGiver," my [few] boys in Bishop, and Bartlett '01 baby) – thanks for makin it fun and keeping it REAL, we own this school and you know it's gonna be strugglin' next year ... Word to the ladies – Nasty Ness and SabLox, and all the rest, again too many; Mads (Good luck senior year, and don't have TOO much fun) BEN, we've missed you, dog, finish strong. Mad shoutout to my boys in DC (Bman, Poots, Quirk, Tom, Tjones, Milkins, Rabbit, Gayraud ... Ehwahds) – yeah I know I'm a traitor, but I kept the love through my three years at this "pathetic" school. Summer '01 will be nasty. Oh and wassup to my man Alex B, I'll be seeing you. PEACE

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deed could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by the dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy course; who at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who, at worst, if he fails at least fails while daring greatly; so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat." – Theodore Roosevelt

Mom and Dad – I love both of you so much. You made me leap for the stars, pick myself up when I fall, laugh, run, think, and do chin-ups. You have shown me the road to becoming a man, that you, Dad, forged so long ago. And if I can stand in your shoes at the end of that road, saluting our flag and the values you have entrusted me with, I will know I have done you justice as a father. The passion that you, Mom, have instilled in me has flourished here at Andover. Your love and understanding has always allowed me to grow in every direction.

To those with whom I shared Phillips, I will never forget the tears and laughter. To everyone that I will eternally share memories, thanks. Specially, but not exclusively:

Andrew – Stearns and watermelons, girls and lacrosse: God what fun we've had! "When you get to your boat, you'll get a rear, and if you don't, gimme a call ... I'll tly with you." – Top Gun Kings – Thanks for always looking out for me, even when I didn't realize it. Remember: I don't smoke! Peer – Mmm, have you seen my baseball? Lets get to a few more Ericssons, alright? Devo – Your motivation made me a better athlete, thanks for keepin the linebackers off me, all of them. Kawakami – Thanks for giving me the beer goggles to look at Andover through, I couldn't have made it without you loosening me up. Tim, Brad, and Finerman – 4 years, everyday. Can't think of three better people to live with. Football – From the locker room to the field, I laughed my hardest. You guys hang in there (I), FM, BC, KM, DW, DB! Stearns Boys – I want to see all you boys makin Alfred proud like we always have. You know how. Anna – Never will I forget, thank you. Becky – You've touched me in so many ways. Always remember you're beautiful.

A special thanks to those who have profoundly influenced me through their sincerity and support, especially Clyfe, Dr. and Mrs. Strudwick, McGraw, Frau Svec, Ms. Kelly, Mrs. Murphy, Coach Mo and Mr. Grogan.

Thank you- mom, dad, Elizabeth, Patrick (you have been so supportive, I love you so much). Double Brick freshman year- Those were crazy times... My triad- You are such a spirited bunch. Don't forget everything that happened. Deen/Liz/Tara/Julia- you girls were my sisters lower year. I'll never forget that. To the real music people- Leroy, Laurie, Melvin, Jason, Will, Myndi, Jeffy, Adrea, Michael, Bjorn, etc: you all make me smile. I will never forget you... DeLacy, party much on Thursdays of six-day weeks? Me neither. Matt- sorry about calling you a smelly lobster and chasing you with rubber cement (didn't think I'd remember?) so, when are we going to Canada? Ben- thanks for not asking my advice, good luck in life. eMi- How about Australia?! Maggie- let's just say I basically owe you my life and your own Starbucks, oh yeah and maybe a coke sign and a bagel. To my friends who have graduated- I still love you!

Mom, Dad, Chrissie, Lisa and all my relatives you will always remain my best friends. I would not be much without you. You guys have been with me through it all and nothing can break the eternal love and strong friendship that we have for each other.

To my friends:

"... I remember you and recall you without effort, without exercise of will; - that is, by natural impulse, indicated by a sense of duty, or of obligation. And that, I take it, is the only sort of remembering worth the having. When we think of friends, and call their faces out of the shadows, and their voices out of the echoes that faint along the corridors of memory, and do it without knowing why, say that we love to do it, we content ourselves that that friendship is a Reality, and not a Fancy - that it is built upon a rock, and not upon the sands that dissolve away with the ebbing tides and carry their monuments with them."

- Mark Twain

"Far better is it to dare mighty things, to win great triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to rank with those poor spirits who know neither enjoy much nor suffer much. Because they live in the gray twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat."

Thank you to each person who made my four years at Andover the best years of my life. Mom and Dad ... You have built the solid foundations on which I have been able to thrive.

Robert ... you are the inspiration with which I drive myself to do my best. I love you all.

To my best friends: Georgiana, Colleen, and Allison ... each one of you is so special to me ... what would I do without you guys? Proctor Sheena, you have made me keep strong and shared with me your soul. Chuck ... you opened my eyes ... thanks for everything. Paul Hall ... ah, the memories! To all my other friends, my life would not be the same without each and every one of you.

Each friend represents a world in us, a world possibly not born until they arrive, and it is only by this meeting that a new world is born.

Romi - What do I say for the girl who has been like my sister for the past 18 years. From nursery to college, we have been through it all together. The past four years have been hard, but the distance has made our friendship stronger. Thank you for always being there. I love you ... and remember BFF. Some things we will never forget: WAR, "hey those are my pants," treehouses, trampoline fund, Burt, partying in the Hamptons for the 1st time, Fubu k., Halloween in VT, Aruba, MB20, DMB.

Erin - So glad that we met. You are one of my best friends. You have seen me through the best and worst times. I love you and thanks for everything. Memories: Brazil, Turtle Bay, Beach Bar, Summers, Weekends at Bentley, Bob 3, stogies, Golden Girls, random drives down Dune Rd., sitting at the inlet, and how could we ever forget ... w—ers in a blanket.

Betty - These last couple of years have been great. We have had a ton of fun together, and this summer is going to be even better. I will never forget the psychic and was that a pint of ice cream? I love you.

Hilary - It has been a wild few years and I am glad you have been my friend through it all. I'll never forget Labor Day, 6 cop cars and 2 stooges, hey want a mint? Rose.

Chris - The past three years have been very interesting. You have always known what to say to make me feel better, especially during all my little traumas. We have memories that I will never forget, especially the time when you brought me to S.M.'s graduation party ... it started it all. Luv ya and thank you ... for everything.

Jenn - For the past few years we have had a wonderful friendship. Without it who knows where I would be right now. You have helped me get through all the hard times and have helped me celebrate the good times. You were there to care about all the little things that didn't matter to anyone else and I will never forget that. Look at us, somehow we managed to do this. We have so many memories and we have so many more to make. I love you. Remember: Don't whig out, oh my God I have to drive home, Turtle Bay, you're not going to bed 'til you drink all that water, Don't Girl Shirt, he's gonna key my car, A.H., Ryan, Dana, Gods gift to ???

Rachel - I am so glad we have become friends, you have taught me so much about others and about myself. We've been through some great times together. I just want to know who are you going to call next year at 6:00 a.m. to ask all those pressing questions that you have at that hour? I love you and I'm going to miss you next year.

Slo Jacks - Thanks for all the wonderful memories!!!

Mom and Dad - I could have never made it through the past four years without you both. It was your inspiration, care, guidance, and love that kept me going, even when I was on the verge of giving up. Thank you for always being there for me. I love you both more than anything and I will miss you both next year, especially those home cooked meals. Hey Mom, for the last time ... and Dad ...

Pop-pop - I could have never come here if it was not for you, your inspiration, and your love. It seems like just yesterday I was celebrating my acceptance with you and here it is four years later and I am graduating. A day does not pass when I don't think of you. I love you pop-pop and I miss you.

*Mom, Dad, Jamie, and Tyler:
Eternal thanks for your love and support.
You have guided me through the toughest times and I am forever grateful that we were able to spend these past few years together.
I look forward to the years ahead and many beautiful summers in Maine.*

*To all of my friends:
Congratulations! Through the good times and bad times we made it!
Let the celebrations continue!
Good luck and promise to stay in touch

EXCITEMENT AND DANGER AND THE CHANCE TO SACRIFICE MYSELF
FOR LOVE."
~ LEO TOLSTOY*

Well, it seems like only yesterday when I was packing my bags to come to this place. It's been quite a ride these past four years and I can safely say that I'll never forget any of it, good or bad. I honestly can't figure out how I've made it this far but I do know that I didn't do it alone. I just want to say thanks to those folks who didn't think I would make it through this crazy place; you gave me the fuel to prove you wrong. My love and unending thanks goes out to those who helped me get to where I am today. It can only go up from here.

Some thank you's need to be said...

Mom and Dad - You two have stuck with me through thick and thin and I hope that through it all, I've made you proud. I couldn't have gotten through these four years without your love and constant support. I love you.

Jason and Joe - You guys are my two best friends and have always been there for me. You've taught me things and set examples for me that I will never forget and I just want you to know that I love you both very much.

Gavin - Well, from Brookwood to PA, it's been quite a trip. Thanks for putting up with me lower year, I know it wasn't easy. You've been a true friend. Don't let Capitol Hill corrupt you too much and good luck with the marriage. Have a great summer, Lenny.

Will - I probably never would have met or spoken to you if we hadn't lived together lower year. Kinda strange to think about, huh? Anyway, I'm just very glad that we did meet, I'll definitely be visiting next year. Never forget 11/29/98.

Frau - Playing in a band with you and simply being around you has made me a better musician and I thank you for it. My only hope is that you follow your dream because I know that if you do, I'll be in the front row for your first Sold-Out performance at Carnegie Hall. I can't wait.

Shinner - I couldn't have asked for a better roommate for Senior Year. Good luck with everything.

Nalder - Thanks for teaching me the art of the all nighter and never hesitating to argue with me and prove me wrong, no matter how trivial the issue.

Raptor, Brad - From Rockwell to Bartlet, 'ole Friar Nug will never forget you two. Now I won't have a fridge to gank stuff from and you won't have someone to pay for your Harry's, so I guess it all works itself out nicely in the end. Good luck next year.

Marker, Tork, Kareem, Idle Chung, Chase, Darci, Bobby, Robin, Scriv, Sinex, Yorty - You guys are the greatest. Thanks for making these last two years more fun than I ever could have imagined.

Mr. Bardo, Ms. Murray, Mr. Heelan, Dr. Wilkin, Mr. Regan, Dr. Dalton - You, the teachers, are what makes Andover such an exceptional place. I feel very fortunate to have had all of you as my teachers.

Cameron - You've been an incredible teacher and friend for the past three years. Thanks for all that you have taught me, guitar and beyond.

Ian Cropp

To the admissions office: Thanks for letting me in!

To my parents: I'm sorry that I didn't adhere to my once a week phone call policy for three years, but I wanted to save money (DAD). Mom, I still don't forgive you for going to game six ... just joking, but you still owe me one. I love you both so much and cherish every moment that I've been fortunate enough to have you guide me through life.

To my brothers: You don't have to thank me for leaving. It was tough not having anyone to make fun of. I'll spare you the emotional stuff, don't worry.

Grandparents: Thank you so much for giving me all the love and support through the years.

Mike: When I first met you I almost withdrew from school ... trick! I will never forget the innumerable good times we had together; on the train (Marcus), in Providence (Prophit!), in Lawrence (Mike Garrigan) or just staying up late complaining about how screwed over we get. Dude, it's been three amazing years together, I couldn't have asked for anything more, except a guaranteed 5.0!

Wes: Did what's his name get at you the other day??? (I liked the Rabbi deez nutz best)

Zach: I suggest you look over here.

Cap: Did you find the can of tuna under your pillow? Frank: How could I ever forget your incredible stories and our unforgettable double date with the cyber queen? Tim and Peltz: We'll be here all week! TUB: 4-ever

Everyone else: Thank you so much for all the good times!

"By the time I get out of the river, off the snag I pulled myself onto, the sun is down. I walk back to the car, turn on the high beams and drive it up the bank. I put it in first gear and then I take my hand off the clutch. I get out, close the door and watch it plow softly into the water. The headlights reach in as they go down, searching, still lighted even after the water swirls over the back end. I wait. The wires shot out. It is all finally dark. And then there is the water, the sound of it going and running and going and running and running."

These past four years have been quite a journey. One filled with the sad, the happy, and the unexpected, and I have loved every moment of it. To all those who have been part of that journey, thank you for these past years. I wish you all the best of luck wherever life may take you next.

On life's road I walk, the wayward wanderer, without purpose or cause. I know not where I shall end, but my journey goes on, following step after step from dawn until dusk I carry on my life one piece at a time, and take joy in each part as I walk by. — Anonymous Meach: You've been there all 4 years. Thanks. It's been interesting. Work on becoming a man and remember it's all a state of mind.

Chase and Dougherty: It's been a lot of fun. A house was an experience. Take it easy in college.

Wardo: We've had some good times. Have fun next year. And be sure to trim up them eyebrows fish.

Courtney: You've kept it interesting. Have fun next year. Thanks for everything.

Kenly: It's been about 13 or 14 years now. That pretty much says it all. Have fun in college. Hold your own against those females.

Cropp: Keep growing the hair. It looks good. Enjoy yourself next year. Stay in touch.

Clyfe, Mr. and Mrs. Strudwick, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy: Thank you very much for all your time and help.

Mom, Dad, Bethany, Brian: Thank you for everything.

Thanks to everyone - teachers, coaches, friends, and family - who taught me the things I needed to learn, whether I wanted to be taught them or not. Mom and Dad, your guidance and love have kept me going when nothing else could. I may not have admitted it often, but you are my inspiration. To all my teachers, you have taught me more than what's in the books, and that's what I'll remember most. Mike Ebner and Chad: thanks for inspiring the best in me. To all the girls and guys here who've made me smile and helped me learn some of the hardest and the best lessons, thank you for the worlds you opened up in me. To those I couldn't have made it without: Kate- You've been like a sister to me since I can remember. I've missed you this year, but near or far you're always my best listening ear and source of advice. Josh- No matter what happens, you will always be special to me, and I hope you will always be a part of my life. Erin- Your strength and courage never cease to amaze me. You've always been there for me, and I'll always be there for you, whether you need me or not. Also, thanks to X-C '99&'00, S.C. trip '97-'01, G-3 crew '97&'98, and D.R. trip 2000 for good times and great memories!

ad. We grew up at this place together man. 4 years here. Thanks for everything, and good luck in all your endeavors. Only: Wow man... One more road to cross, one more risk to take. 16-0, what an accomplishment! I wish someday that may be as compassionate and caring as you have been to me in the last four years. I will never forget the letter you gave me on my birthday. Thank you for making my Andover experience everything it could possibly be. Chase. It's been a great ride for me, and you've been right there every step of the way. Newman House was a great one, as were our years here at Bartlett. Success is written all over you buddy, good luck with everything. Chris. We've had a great time hear buddy, 4 years! Cheers to the red rocket! Thanks for the memories, and have fun in college.

town: This place has set us on our way to becoming lifetime friends. Hey let's go PLPF huh? Thanks for everything and good luck.

coach Scott: Over the three years we've been together, we have shared great success and heart ache as well. You have been an enormous part of my career here, and I thank you for being one of the only faculty members that I could really turn up to. Thanks for always being around to talk to, and thanks for being a great coach.

at times, life here at Andover seems like it's never going to end, and at other times, it seems as though the entire experience has passed at a blink of the eye. Thank you to all the teachers, coaches, and students who have contributed to my Andover career, with a special thanks to Eric, Katelyn, and Kristen. May god bless you all.

First of all I want to thank my parents for helping me get to where I am today. That would be in the PACC typing out this text so my face-book picture doesn't get posted on my senior page. Just kidding ... You have both been great in helping me accomplish my goals. To my brother Josh and my sister Hannah, umm ... don't look through my stuff when I'm away at college or I'll take the Playstation. Kidding again ... To Frankie, Derrick, Erica and all my other cousins and family, I love you all. To all my brothers on the football team, the season has been tough, but we have pulled through as a family. Remember, we are CHAMPIONS. Also, I would like to thank my coaches for their extensive support throughout my high school football career.

To my parents: Thanks for everything. For putting up with me, for driving me back and forth for four years (even on those cold, snowy Saturday mornings), for being there for me, and for having faith in me. I know I let you down sometimes, but you never stopped loving me, or yelling at me for that matter. I know I can turn to you for anything, and for that I just want to say thanks.

To my brother: Hey, Bri, what can I say? After you graduated I never really saw you anymore. Always away at school, or in Australia, or doing something ambitious that would make mom and dad proud. Now it's my turn to do something cool. Hopefully I'll come through.

To my boys: Jerome, my brotha, it's been real kid. We had a lot of good times together, and I could always count on you to keep me from getting my work done. Thanks for always driving me everywhere and being cool with it. Anyway, best of luck to you wherever you go, and good luck to you and Jill. P SSSSS, my booooooyyyyyy, I got you like I got you, my M's kid, my M's, Richa, Richa, Richa! (sorry man, I had to). Yo P, it been fun, man. I can't believe it's almost over, and I can't believe you're with Kyla. Aaaaaahhh! (sorry, I had to do that one too). Good luck kid, and don't worry. I know Ghandi's got ya back. Meleeeee! Probably didn't think you'd be in here, did you? Well, kid, it's been cool. Thanks for inviting me to RI and being cool with me no matter what. Keep ya head up, one day you'll find a girl (maybe Sienna—Daaaamn!! She was fine!) To the girls in Garver: what can I say, it's been fun. I never thought doing homework in the library would be cool, but it was aight. Good luck to all of you, and thanks.

Dearest MUM and DAD, The two of you have given me SO much. I will never be able to thank you enough. And when my needs extend further than a bed to sleep in, food on my plate or what seems the obvious next step, I know you will support me there too. You've taught me a very valuable lesson that, as one goes through life, one learns that if you don't paddle your own canoe, you don't move. RAIKA- you are the most beautiful person in the world to me, in every sense of the word, and I love you unconditionally. I know through thick and thin we'll both be there for each other. Thank you for being you. DADIMA, MAMAJAAN and PAPA- we love you. Take-care and be strong. FREY and NY-ya'll are the best and I hope you know nothing will replace your friendships. FA- Love you- TIMURA. The gang- KKK, Saumil, Abhi, Shirish. We're all slowly entering the real world and are hundreds of miles away from each other, but I know the bond we formed isn't that easily broken. Cathedral- however far you seem, thanks to you too. To EVERYONE here at PA-'01, teachers and everyone. Every one of you has added to the richness of the past three years. Esp. RAE-RAE, DES, BRIENNE, ZLIKA, HULIA, RACHEL, GEETS, LIZ, JESS, TARA, sDEEN, MAT, ALLY, DANA, KRIS, SHAKS and Big G (mere sapno ki rani), CHARLENE, MIN, SHERRI, CHRIS, MARGRITA, BRYNA, and everyone who I mean to thank but am forgetting. You folk are incomparable in every way and I cannot imagine calling a better group of people friends. Here's to living the dream, seeing you en Inde and most definitely and ALWAYS friends forever. To PERFORMING my heart out- I pray the opportunities never stop flowing. "Through the music we learn to love," J. Lennon. To MUSIC- To taking the joy to the next level. To being inspired. To being happy. To fulfilling destiny.

PARAG GOYAL (aka ghetto P, gg, PD, ity, P Money)

To Freshman crew,
Although you guys ain't here, (JH+KS), I wouldn't do my senior page without mentioning you two. You two are the best!

To the Para Goyals crew
You know, JH+BB, are begun with a dream. And guys, don't let me make the All-You-
Can-Eat-Busday a tradition.
Will go in forever. Must not but a year of it must not to count for something

To my family,
Thank you. You've been a constant throughout my life. Your love and support has always been there. You've never let me down, and I know in my heart you never will.
I love you all very much. I dedicate this page to you!

To Stearns (esp RD+EN)
I've loved the trips to Sweetie B's and Fiddi's I'm gonna go broke soon, but I couldn't have gone broke with a better set of guys. What would we have done without my car?!!?

To my freshmen triad,
You were the first group of friends I had here. Although we aren't as close as maybe we used to be, we'll always have that triad
bond we formed freshmen
spring.

"My friends and experiences are the

We were nasty! We had so much fun whipping everyone else. Abbot is still the best.

To JCP,
You guys are my boys! You've always had my back. I'll never forget that!

To NM,
I've known you since freshman year. We've been through a lot. If I had a quarter for everytime I flipped on you, I'd be rich.
Sorry but that, but at least it made our friendship interesting.

Mom and Dad, I cannot thank you enough for your undying support during the many transitions I have gone through in the past three years. Your persistent encouragement and direction were essential in my success. You mean so much to me. I love you. ♦ Mike, I cannot even begin to explain how important you were to me these past years. It was always a comfort to know you were just a short distance away. You always helped me through my tough times, my tough decisions. I truly look up to you and respect you. ♦ Chris and Matt, thank you for always being there, for being incredible brothers. Despite how I may act, I always appreciate your attention. Keep working, striving for the best. You are both incredible people. ♦ I cannot thank all of the members of the Soccer Team enough. We have a special bond, we are a special team; thank you for the magical season. ♦ Adam, Danny, I could not have asked for a better roommate or friend. I will never forget our friendship, our memories. I cannot thank you enough for having been such an influential person in my life. ♦ Miller, though you are graduated, I could not go without thanking you. Not one night did you turn down a conversation, a good laugh. You were always there to be a great friend; we shared many good times, I will not forget them. ♦ Tucker, I am still better than you at FIFA, you know that right? ♦ Jake, thank you for making me feel at home when I come back to Eugene. You always made things at ease, so comfortable. Your friendship has meant so much. I can never forget the great memories, and experiences. It's a funny thing that life. ♦ To all the others in Searns, you have meant so much. Newman, Ramesh, Mitch, Arguelles, Pearson, Hans, Timmy, Finnerman, Los, John, Brandon, Ben, Wills, Crowley, Sam, and Monty thank you for a great dorm, and great friendships. Oh go go go! ♦ "Wash out this tired notion that the best is yet to come...don't burn the day away." DMB

I would like to thank God for bringing me this far. To my Mommy and Daddy: I am grateful for everything you have done to ensure a positive growth. I appreciate your efforts and I love you very much. Stay strong and stay young. To Coleth, Aunt Dawne, Grandma, Grandpa and the rest of the Fam: I love you all unconditionally. I hope I have set a good example for those who follow behind me, but know that I couldn't have done it without you guys. Thanks to all of my second mothers: Godmommy Francine, Big Mama Jane, Inga and Maritza ... to all of my big sisters: Jaronda, Alexandra, Lynda, and Zandra ... to all of my big brothers: Inglewood, Craig, and Milkdud head. You guys were there when I needed you the most. Thanks for coming through. To my sisters: Tanya, Kia, Shanna, Fanny, Nickole, Casi, Julie and Jadele ... to my brothers: Jason, Joshy, PICS, "E", K.C., Brad and Pally. There will always be a special place in my heart for you. Thanks for all the smiles. Keep on breathing. Thanks to all my past mentors: Sooyun, Bonnie, Deysia, Anayah, Lewis, G-Dawgs, and Proctor Chelle. Thanks for guiding me and teaching me the ropes. To those I leave behind: Quanisha, Ayanna and Erin. I love you guys. Be good to each other and stay positive ... my Paul Revere girls: Loni, Proctor Claire, Brittney, Brandi, Badman, Cortney, "Square", Kerri and the rest of the crew. Keep smiling ladies, cause you are the bomb! ... Sha-sha, Maggie, Itiah, Amanda, O'Shea, Nicole M. and Nicole G. - I only want to hear good things. Shout out to my Salamanca crew: Thanks for putting up with me. That was the best summer ever! To my SLAM girls: Keep doing your thang and it'll be all good. Special shout out to my heart, Braxton: You have shown me a better way to see myself, others & life. What am I going to do without you there to pick me up when I fall? And to my mind, Raquel. Words cannot describe the kind of friend you have been to me. You were always willing to listen. I love you both too much. Thank you to all the faculty and friends that have nurtured me and helped me to grow into a more responsible and confident human being. I'll miss it here and I'll miss everyone. One love.

Damion, Laredo, and JT: Living with all of you has made this experience well worth it. The good and the bad times that we have had will stay with me forever. Remember next year I will only be a phone call away. Damion, if I could give you one gift I would give you the ability to see yourself as others and I see you. You have gone out of your way to make sure I was happy and for that I owe you. Laredo, You have shown me that I must do everything in life at 100 percent and not take advantage of anything. JT, "What up Dog?" I am going to miss you next year you are an awesome roommate and you can always bring a smile to my face. Take care and make the best of the next two years. To all the people that have helped me along the way, thank you! LM DB "Fare thee well, now. Let your life proceed by its own design. Nothing to tell, now. Let the words be yours, I'm done with mine."

Mom: Once again you have supported me and helped me on my path to success. I am so lucky to have a hard-working, talented and dedicated mother. You have been a parent figure as well as my best friend. I will never be able to express my gratitude. I love you mom with all of who I am and will become.

Otie: It feels lonely without you around. I struggle with the easy things, making my bed and having my cloths ready for the next day. Most of all I miss all of the home cooking. Despite missing all of those things the one thing I miss the most is your warm glow and affection.

Hey everyone! It's been an exciting four years here and I've enjoyed every one of them. There have been many delightful memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life.

Mark Twain

My love goes out with a thank you to everyone who's ever said a word to me—you are my Andover. "An hour is a minute, a minute is a day." (Anonymous)

→My time at PA. The following people have made a significant mark on my soul—never to be forgotten. Mom—you wise spirit lights my path always. Pops—constant gentle nudges down the "way" I is -thank you. Kaker-your love inspires me to my best: I can't fathom a better little sis! I love you. Tim-13 years and we finally must leave our anthill-the best for always. Kate-your unwavering friendship means more than you know-I wouldn't be who I am without you. Brad-the voice of reason-I wouldn't have made it through without you. Darc-the words haven't been invented yet-thank you. Lawson-a constant inspiration-thanks for including me in your journey. Joe-you are enthusiasm, thanks for listening Erin-4 long years, one unforgettable friendship-you are in my thoughts always. Ford-you've got a great heart and a good head-keep wind in your sails. Els-forever and always-keep smiling. Gins-incredible that you can push me from below and same time. Pam-keep me from above at the comfortable that way! Stand Up Eight. you head high, its more feels like four, I hope it -Japanese Proverb Blitz-one year of friendship ducks! I'll get to Oregon, I promise. Frankie-never change, much love. Natalie, Lucy, Natalie-thank you for your constant warmth.
Aronson-years of waiting, I'm glad you came. Andrew-I cherish our friendship, hopefully for years after PA. Bets-friends first, thank you for your open-ears, support and love. Thank you for: Ms. Mulligan-rising above and beyond the challenge. Coach Scott-giving me guidance, direction and success. Coach Price-your friendship-I'm on your team now! Mr. Rogers-Tsunami Time! Your vibrance. Ms. St. Pierre-nubbing your shine on me. Mr. Chase-your spirit-I wish I'd known you earlier. Soccer-faculty member! being a friend, too. "it's all about timing." PA Soccer 2000 my heart is with you all—thank you for the most amazing experience of my life. Thank you PA for the time of my life.

You've got so much to say/ say you're thinking/ and think anything. -Cat Stevens

I'm glad I did it, partly because it was well worth it, but chiefly because I shall never do it again. -
Mark Twain

First off, thanks to my 4-year advisor, Mrs. Mulligan, without whom I would be lost. You have been nothing less than wonderful for the past 4 (turbulent) years, and my gratitude can never be expressed in words. To Dr. Henningsen, you have been so marvelous and inspiring, and thanks for NOT kicking me out of your History 300 class. To all of my math teachers over the years, who have put up with my ineptitude (esp. Mr. Scott, to whom I owe my admission to Andover :) you don't have to worry about getting stuck with me anymore. A BIG thank-you to the Colbert family, for practically adopting me, and to Dr. and Mrs. K. for always being so kind to me in spite of my mathematical shortcomings. And to my real family for financing this four-year party (yeah, right) and my brother for never failing to be a pain in the butt. I am most indebted to Mrs. Wombwell, for her constant encouragement and instruction and infinite patience during my entire Andover career. Because of you, I have grown not only as a dancer, but also as a person over the past four years. To all of the dancers that I have grown to love as my sisters during these four years, I will miss you terribly. And thanks especially to my many amazing friends, without whom I'd be a lost and lonely traveler on a rough road. To all of the talented musicians, artists, and scholars I have been privileged to meet, you are too numerous to mention by name, but I know that you will continue to enrich the world with your gifts the way you have touched my life. And lastly, a message to my girls, Claire, George and Allie: have your people call my people 'cause we are sooooo incapable of making plans ourselves! But seriously, you guys are the greatest, and I don't think I tell you that enough. We'll always have our many memories! To everyone I love: see ya in

A message is often passed from adult to child: "High School is the best four years of your life." I've always found it funny that someone could make this claim without living through all of life, but as my time has come to an end here at PA, the meaning of that message begins to make more sense to me. It's not the actual words that carry the meaning; it's the notion. Thank you to the faculty, staff, parents, and most importantly, students: You've given me a high-school career that was the best it ever could have been.

Spence: Something always told me you would be my backbone; that thing that every person looks for, but few are fortunate enough to really find. I'm pretty damn lucky, huh?
-The love from one friend to another.

Kate: As our lives move on and time here is done our dreams still grow and we stay as one. Let your goals soar. You'll always reach them. Love, Me

Sherm, Meg, Tyler, El, Chuck, Julie, Parfit, and the rest of my buddies: There is nothing better than knowing I always have someone who I can put my trust in. You've all given me that opportunity. Never stop reminding yourselves that I'm there for you too. Thank you all.

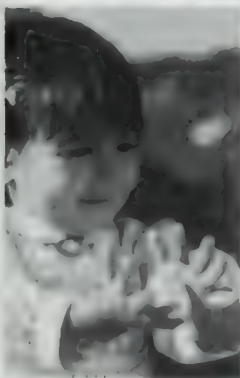

To my family:
My best friends EVER!
I Love You.

Oh Yeah to everyone, "You have something on your shirt"

Mom and Dad: I know you only did it to get me out of the house. I don't blame you.
Thanks. I love you.

My relatives: Thanks for the cards, the gifts, the phone calls, and in some cases, for putting up with my presence and that of my ever-expanding Mountain O'Stuff.

My teachers: Some of you made me like subjects I never knew I could tolerate, some of you just made a good thing better, and all of you made class as enjoyable as anything

It is not by accident that the happiest people are those who make a conscious effort to live useful lives. Their happiness, of course, is not a shallow exhilaration where life is one continuous intoxicating party. Rather, their happiness is a deep sense of inner peace that comes when they believe their lives have meaning and that they are making a difference for good in the world.

Tienes que amar tu vida.
Tienes que creer que puedes
Lograr tus Sueños
Y que tu alma es buena.
Al levantarte cada día
Se feliz con el simple vivir,
Y descubre de nuevo la belleza de este mundo.
Explora y celebra el regalo de la vida
Y los que te rodean
Descubre lo unico de tu persona.
Haz algo especial,
y muestra a los demas
las estupendas cosas del vivir diario

No temas admitir
tus propias flaquezas
pues es la esencia misma de tu humanidad.
Acepta la ayuda de los seres queridos
Ten confianza, acepta sus regalos
Aprovecha las posibilidades ofrecidas hoy, pues, aparte del hoy, nada resulta cierta.
Vive el presente bien.
No temas dar y recibir felicidad
Inventa tu propio arco iris.
No dejes de seguir las posibilidades,
pues podran transformarse en milagros.

But, really, it's really fine with me. Okay, whatever you say. Let's see, I'll take it from the top, that should be easiest. Let me just try counting this one again, ONE-two-three-ONE-two. Are you sure that's how I should count it? Well, that doesn't help any. You're just running my musical enjoyment, kind of like the violin lady who got angry at us across the hall. From riverside to hillcrest,
From tower to spire,
I have learned, laughed and Loved more than I ever imagined.
Thank you all.

J.P. Jones once said "He who will not risk cannot win." I have risked, and I have won. I have won in friendship and in experience and I owe that to you. My friends, I am indebted. It has been an incredible time, and to mention all who have played a part would be impossible, but know that you, in unexpected kindness and gentle mocking made my time here what it was. Of course, mentions do need to be made: DBG, how tight were we? What a way to start! I can't wait to see where you amazing girls take yourselves in life. Dearest Meg, there is no moment, no day, no year that defines our friendship. I know you to be the most caring, thoughtful and giving person I could ever hope to know. Our road has been varied, tested with hardship, and proved true. There has been nothing more worthwhile. I will know you always but thank you for the time so far, and for being one I trust. You are truly luminous. Tim, you're an incredible friend, someone I can turn to in joy and grief. I wish you all the joys you deserve. My Kayti, someone once asked me if we were really friends, or just roommates, and I couldn't help but laugh. We've reached the point where I could never repay you for all the laughter and memories I owe you. I can't imagine PA without you. We'll not be roommates anymore, but I'd laugh once again should anyone say we won't be friends. Who else knows how to platform dive? Who has the 80mph-bagel toss? Only you, Cashin, only you. Fam, I wanted to do this on my own, and you let me. I'm impressed. Friends, my parting words, if there is one thing I have learned it is this: faber est suae quisque fortunae. Good luck to you all. Cheers.

Thanks So Much! Margaret May

Tigerrrr23, You're the coolest person I've never met. ☺

ANDREW R. MCKINNON

I AM GRATEFUL

I am grateful for Saturday's with my brothers in blue.
I am grateful for my family not just the McKinnon's, Joseph's, and Crandon's
I am grateful for my extended families the Hopkins', the Winston's, the Rodriguez's, the Bowie's, the Durant's, the Araujo's and the many other families I have in NYC.
I am grateful for my Brooklyn Princess who, no matter what she says or does, will have a place in my heart deeper than most.
I am grateful for Ha, Reem, and Big Head.
I am grateful for Granny & Grandfather

I am grateful to be where I am
I am grateful to God for where he has brought me and where he might lead me.

I am grateful to all that tolerate me
And to those that loves me.
I am grateful to those that have given me knowledge including Cable TV.
I am grateful for ESPN and the plays of the week.
I am grateful for the big hit and the big play.

I am grateful for my mother.

For everything I am grateful for

I say THANK YOU.

Andover According to The Princess Bride

Lower Year (our parents speaking)

"Have fun storming the castle!"

"You think it'll work?"

"It would take a miracle."

Upper Year

"Ooh poo poo Look who knows so much! Well it just so happens that your friend here is only mostly dead. There's a big difference between mostly dead and dead... Mostly dead is slightly alive."

Senior Fall

"I've got my country's five hundredth anniversary to plan, my wedding to arrange, my wife to murder, and Guilder to frame for it. I'm swamped!"

Senior Spring

"No more rhymes now I mean it!"

"Anybody want a peanut?"

I would like to thank my family who has been supportive of me even through rough times, my fellow Stimsonites who have been wonderful friends, the Maqubelas who have been like a second family to me, Ada who has been a wonderful advisor, Cilla who has helped me keep my sanity, and the Andover community for giving me a great three years!

JADELE ELISHA-FRANCES MCPHERSON

First, thanks to my mom, dad, Jalissa, and Jaline for your support and encouragement! Thanks to '98, '99, and '00 (I'm coming Hengy, love you Lethy!) for all the advice. To those who left us early Thalia, Zack R.I.P. Double brick '98 (Darcy, I love you girl 301 forever!), Adams '99 (Sabrina I love ya' doodie), '00. Salamanca '00! Jules, we've been through it all together, but we're no where near done! I love you and always stay strong, Ashley, my sister. You are beautiful, intelligent, and a wonderful person. Casita, you have taught me about friendship and womanhood, thank you. Nickole, you are going far in life, I'm glad our paths crossed. Fab S, my girls! Kia, you make me laugh, please let the world know of all your beautiful talents. Sheena, my sister with a beautiful voice girl it's time to pyung for good! Shanna, what can I say girl what can I say? Stephanie, I have never met someone with such a genuine spirit, keep shining. Raquel, hey I'm glad you're back with us! The Ol boys, E, Josh, Andrew, Brad, K, C, I can't believe it's been four years! I love you guys, Joe (I love you too much for words), Laws (let's keep jammin', did I call you last night?), Thibault (I'm glad I got to know you), Nick (you're almost too intelligent for me to like you! You are a special and really talented kid!), Seyi you are too funny. To my wonderful teachers thank you; Dr. Fan, Dr. Warsaw, Mr. Quattle, and Señora McCann, and Mr. Thomas thanks for teaching me and being great people. To the rest of '01, I love all of you guys, it was fun and I'll miss you all!

To my friends,

Words cannot express how I feel about you. I will always remember the good times we had. I wish you all the best.

To the teachers and administrators,

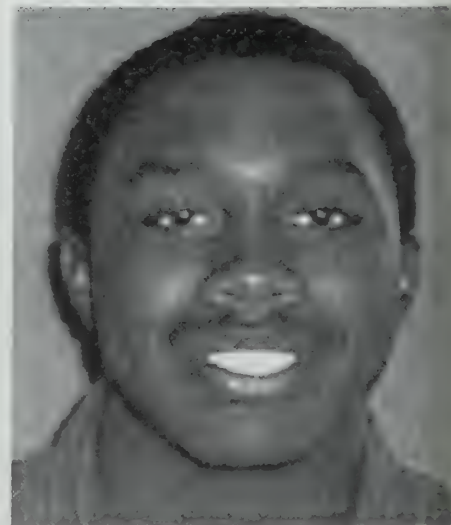

Thank you teaching me all that you have taught me. My experiences with each of you are invaluable.

To Jenni and Jon,

Every time I have come home I've witnessed you grow up before my eyes. You cannot imagine how proud I am to be your big brother. Continue to grow, learn, and change. You two are my heart.

To my Mom and Dad,

Thank you for letting me run all the way to the edge and off the cliff. Somewhere along there you taught me how to fly. But I will always know where home is. I love you.

- Steve Mead -

- Mark Twain

Mom and Dad- I owe everything to you guys, you are the best. I couldn't have asked for better parents. You gave me the opportunity to come here and supported me the entire way. I know I don't say this often, but I love you.

Heather- The best of the best. Some people don't understand why we never fought, frankly neither do I, but as the years go by we seem to grow closer and closer. Thanks for always being there for me.

Vanessa and Mariel- The past three years were unforgettable. I don't know what I would have done without you guys. Words cannot express how much our friendship has meant to me. Ness I don't know what I am gonna do if I never hear: "Eww", "That's repulsive", or "Can we just talk about this?" Mob, if you pinch my arm one more time, I am gonna give you a TT. Good luck next year, keep in touch.

Gino, Theo and Timmy- We had a blast!!!!!! It's hard to believe what we have gone through the past three years. Even though you couldn't partake in all the fun Tim, we always took one for ya. Hockey was great, good luck next year.

Special thanks to: Clyde Beckwith, Coach Gurry and Boylan, Brian Cox, and Lorenzo (you funny bastard) Thanks for all your support.

Thanks for showing me the path Des.

Tyssen, you're the coolest guy I know. I hope I've made you proud. Megs, you're like a sister to me and the fact that you've put up with me as long as you have is a testament to our friendship as well as your patience. Mr. Ventre and Socci: Thanks for everything, you were more my friends than you were teachers. mom and dad: thanks for always believing in me. To my friends who I'll never forget - Andrew: you were my moral compass Mac. I never told you but you're one of the few people I look up to. Thanks for not letting me stray too far from the path. Frank: you were a bad influence on me Frankie and I love ya for it. Thanks for the wild times and try not to get into too much trouble. Josh: you were always there for me. You took a chance on a shy kid and I couldn't ask for a better friend. Parag: You kept me in check. Always there to point out when I'm doing something wrong or acting like an idiot and always there to protect me. Kelly: thanks for always making me smile. Charlie: One of the funniest kids I know. My teammate and a great friend. I hope you never give up when it comes to getting where you want to be. Maybe someday you'll be able to beat me. Winslow: Everybody's favorite jerk. I loved to watch you rant. I hope you find the excitement you're looking for in life. Eugene: I'm speechless. You're crazy, man. Don't ever change. Jeremiah: You're a good kid. Thanks for being a good friend Godoy: You gave me hell, kid. Sometimes you were my best bud and others I could've killed you. Either way you always made me laugh. Bakk: What a goofy kid. Don't be afraid to have some fun and always be yourself Parfit and Syd: You guys always kept me on my toes. Thanks for staring at me. Jess O.: You helped me see things in another way and be the person I am today. To the rest of my buddies up in the 'croft who made living at PA the time of my life, thanks for the ride: MD, JH, CB, GS, SJ, BM, BK, AZS, JK.

Things to remember: Newport, teaching me comebacks, socci's bocces, pool parties, party pro, Friday, Donnie, putting Mac in a neck brace (I love that one), McGraw's Hamlet, Dad-I admire your ability to follow and excel at what you believe in. Thank you for everything you have taught me.

Mom-You have supported me in every decision I have made.

Your advice means the world to me—in bad times and good. Thank you for always being there.

Whit-Don't lose the 'I' sentences. They define your personality. I love you and thank you for always being my ear, shoulder, and best friend.

Case-I love how you can laugh at yourself, or how you can swear and yell and somehow always get me in trouble. I'm proud of who you are—you mean so much to me. I love you.

Mike-You are the coolest brother I could've asked for. Don't grow up too fast. And maybe one time you could just let me win at NFL Blitz.

Hilary-We have been through so much together. I could never have made it through these four years without you. You are such a strong person and you have always been my constant support. There are simply no words to express my gratitude. I love you.

W. it's been an amazing four years. As Chris Diamond said, "tempus fugit." How can you cram everything into this little space? Where to go? Let's see... Christian: you have managed to keep me sane for two years. It takes talent—I know you love me, but will it ever more than what you have. SSW (You know she's hot)? Keep in touch, you ego-centrical bastard Jica: Harpocrates, or however you spell it—it was awesome having as a fellow Clementine. We made Seffy proud and maybe one day, I will get to be aggressive. Lindsay: my fellow ding-a-ling and co-dictator. Pooky will be you, even if you don't miss my movie critiquing... oh, plhneh. Brew M: Your support has helped me through the most amazingly difficult times and it seems like nothing. Keep up with improv and journalism and maybe we'll catch up each other at the Met one day :-). Amy S: Don't worry Queen of the Night, you'll over Graves soon enough—just let me know when your recital is. PICB: You've got a job or two to learn about being human. Good luck in the legal world—we'll miss your voice. Son C: Keep on smiling—I love you, kiddo

TO MY FRIENDS: wasn't it just last week that we were dressing up for the Sadie in Hale? It can't have been four years since the times of our 'triad migrations' from art to soc. sci. Kim, Amy, Andrea, Sofia, Anna, and all my other wonderful friends: you guys rock; go out and show the world your stuff. We will meet again...until we do, you'll remain in my wonderful memories of Andover.

DR. WARSAW: I think that you have given the term 'advisor' a new meaning. You have guided and supported me through rocky times. I cannot think of Andover without you there to hold my hand and to push me to achieve what I thought impossible. For your confidence in me and your friendship, I thank you.

ADA: you have taught me so much about life and life in literature. I only wish that I will grow up to be half of the woman you are. Thank you for your wisdom, guidance, and inspiration. You will remain always in my heart- as a mentor and a kindred spirit.

DELLA: I made it! I miss you and love you.

MOM & DAD: no words have ever been written or spoken to describe the love and admiration I feel toward you. I could not have been blessed with better parents. Thank you for your unconditional love and support and for teaching me to fly.

LEX: you are my best friend. Whether I'm at college 2,400 mi. away or you're off in some foreign country saving the world, I will always be with you. Your loving kid sister, Squirt

First off I want to say thanks you to my parents for giving me this opportunity to come to PA. Thanks for all the support you have given me in everything. I love you so much! Jill you are the best. Thanks for always being there nomatter what. I love you so much!!!

Jeremiah O'Neill

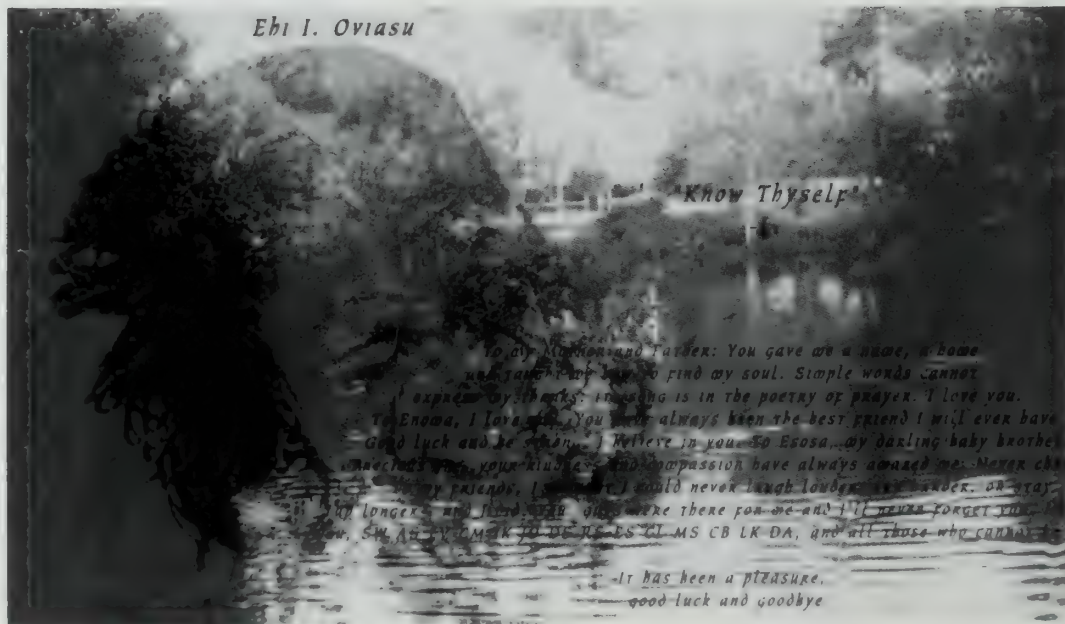

Godoy, kid, its been fun chillin' with you for the past 3 years. You're a sick kid, with your eyes set on the ladies, keep it up. Its been real! Parag, whats up kid, its been a fun four years. From breaking your glass centerpieces (sorry) to failing history tests with ya, its been cool.

First and foremost thanks to God—the true source of everything I have and ever had. You come through for me at all moments. Next, to my brother Okey—easily the coolest, smartest guy I've ever known. These fellas get a special thanks for always being there (unlike the girls) "the Trio"—Brad and Enerson, the Fudruckers crew, Mr. McGraw—coach, ment & friend, all of the JV1 Basketball, Cluster Soccer (ABBOT). The Sykes family, the Murphys, and last but defiantly not least, the Russells. To the ladies for the stress relieved and created one way or another. To my best girlfriend ever—yet to come (hopefully), I love you.

To my family -

Dad: Pops you have always been there for me and willing to push me when I needed it. How do I say there is sauerkraut in my lederhosen?

Mom: Thank you so much for all of your support and you are always welcome to Reiki my room.

All my siblings: I have enjoyed 18 years with you all and I look forward to many more; we need to go to Breckenridge.

my Dawgz:

Yo son, these have been some of the best years of my life. Honestly they paired us perfectly I could never ask for a better roommate. All I can say is "what you need?" I remember pointy teeth!! Don't even think about using the mind control!

is: Kid, from Fuess to here we have come a long way. Fly fishing in Oregon, Burtt use Balcony, and stretching in spandex, we have had some awesome times.

ch: Thug, we have had some of the best experiences together, something that we will always remember. Just remember to keep that Yankees hat on sideways!

g: Little _____. Man we have had some sweet times together. Sugarloaf, the baseball mound, and many more. We will totally stay in touch and thanks for the memories.

nk: Baby, we have had some of the best memories. The nacho bowl made out of ur bed, Jen the cyber queen, man we have had some good times. Keep in touch son.

Mom/Dad: Thanks for giving me the opportunity to be who I wanted to be, go where I wanted to go, and live my life as my own. I owe you everything.

Jadele: You are my therapist, friend, mentor, and entertainer. You always brought me joy. Don't lose your radiance. I love you.

Arabella: Pride and Power is all I have to say. You are a queen and don't ever forget it.

Adams/Doublebrick: crazy time and late nights. thanks for the memories.

Shout out to Emily, Lauren, Carly, mike, Casi, slam, v. volleyball, Mr. McMurry and all those who I truly love. You know who you are.

Ima ve Aba – I can't thank you enough for all you're done and continue to do for me. I love you. Neshikot. Dani – Thank you for being my mentor, my sister and my best friend. I love you so much. "Then came the day I climbed out of these safe limbs, ventured away, head high up and singing." dmb

To my girls – We've laughed till our stomachs hurt, we've cried until there are no tears left. Through everything, we've been there for each other. Thank you for being my backbone when mine isn't strong enough. I never want to live a day of my life without each of you. I love you.

★Natalie★ From the day we met, our bond has been unbreakable. I will stand by you always.

★Luce★ Thank you for being my second mother... and my playmate, too. I'll always need your strength.

★Wads★ Through it all, we've supported each other and found ways to pull through. I'm so glad we never let go.

★To my Kitty-Kat★ – There aren't enough words to express who you are to me. You are my mirror image, my guardian, my star. I can't wait to keep growing side by side.

"See, you and me have a better time than most can dream, have it better than the best, so can pull on through. Whatever tears at us, whatever holds us down, and if nothing can be done, we'll make the best of what's around." dmb

Mom & Dad: Thanks for always being there for me. I know I don't really show it, but I am so grateful for all your love, encouragement, support, and advice. Thank to all my teachers: Mr. Cone, Mr. Williams, Mr. Moze, Mr. Schneider, Ms. Grieco, Ms. Murray, Mr. Hodgson, Mr. Domina, Mr. C., El Blanco, you have all had a serious impact on me and for that I am forever indebted. Andover friends: you know who you are, but there's not enough room for everyone. I would have never made it without you all. My friend A. IL in Irvington NJ. PSP and my boys from home: Stay in touch, summers and vacations have been a blast. Bartlet was awesome, I don't know what I would have done in another dorm. 3 year Srs., good choice. Foxcroft: Bartlet owns you. Richie Garcis, you take more pride in your job than anyone I know and I strive to emulate that. Peace everyone.

amita: you sweet-souled, sexy thing — sing loud. caittlin: darling! thank you for denny's in the snow — and you know what we share... ella: our mature, demure little seductress — my wry, wonderful friend. erin: girl, you are so much fun. here's to dancing until we are ninety-two. marion: shout it out — lovely, spunky, loud. you taught me how to laugh this hard. Mucho cariño. misty: our warm, hilarious, sunny girl — thank you SO much. paige: sleepless brilliance in evans, soul-delving, manic impressions — thank you always for listening. sarah: little monkey, dancing queen, sister: thank you for the style, the quirkiness, for two happy years, my self. love you. smita: the other dancing queen — from the very beginning, wild, witty, wise — remember that enchanted grown-up night in NYC? Sing loud too. Susie: darling! thank you for all the how to info, the craziness, the clear-eyed perspective.

To Mom and Dad: You made the right choice. Thank you for looking out for me. I appreciate all that you have done and I love you. To Cat: You have influenced my life in a way that no one else ever could. I love you and you're my. To Nat, El, and Nat: Coming here, I never expected to find anyone like you. You all changed my mind and more by sharing everything with me. All of our favorite memories here are from times we spent together. True friends are hard to find but you all made it easy. To CLF: No matter where we are, I'll love you. To CPC, MWSH, WW: I have grown more with you than anyone, and you've made me who I am. What I love most is that we're friends for life ... To all my friends in the class of 2001: I will never forget our experience here and how we have changed together. Thank you for everything, and I hope our paths will cross again soon ...

To all of those who made my 3 years at PA worthwhile Mom, Dad, Sara & Doug - thanks for your continual support and help to make home seem less than 3 states away. Lauren, Mariel & Caitlin - thanks to you, my time in Day has been well spent. From the peanut butter and Fluff fights to the 2-hour study breaks, I could always count on you for a good time. Parfit - we've been through it all: Immortal Sisterhood, Chemistry, Brearley and Andover, and I know it won't stop here. Rob & Berg - what can I say, because of you I know all of the lines to Office Space and am a better person because of it. Thanks for all of the weekend-fun at malls and in New York. Luke - for 2 years you've been there for me and, in that time, you've never failed to make me laugh. You are everything I could ever ask for in a friend. Thank you.

Time will say nothing but I told you so,
Time only knows the price we have to pay;
If I could tell you I would let you know.

If we should weep when clowns put on their show,
If we should stumble when musicians play,
Time will say nothing but I told you so.

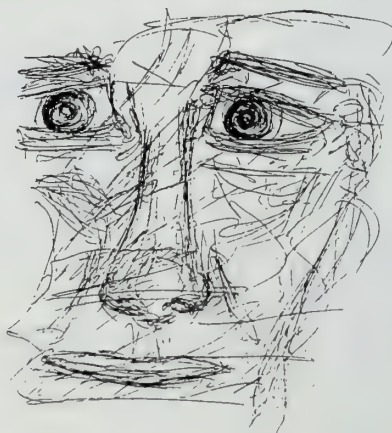

There are no fortunes to be told, although,
Because I love you more than I can say,
If I could tell you I would let you know.

The winds must come from somewhere when they blow,
There must be reasons why the leaves decay;
Time will say nothing but I told you so.

Perhaps the roses really want to grow,
The vision seriously intends to stay;
If I could tell you I would let you know.

I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to come to Andover and receive the best education possible. I love you guys for this and the many other things you do for me.

Thank you to my teachers, my friends and everyone else who has driving me to succeed during my time here. Maybe at times, it seemed as though I was limiting myself to only a few of the many things Andover had to offer. I appreciate the guidance and directions I received through those times. I feel that I am now a better person in every aspect of life because of it.

Mom, Dad, & Ames: Thanks for your love and support along the way—You know I needed it.

Groves: From one WQS President to another, you're the best friend I could ever hope for. Thanks for being there for me even when you weren't...

Shom: Well, we never roomed together, but our friendship was worth it, anyway... I hope you never change.

Karen: Pandas stick together... What can I say, I love you, babe!

BB: Whoa Nader, Like a loser, like the coolest kid I know.

Berner: The Anti-Schneides... Don't forget who you are (because I won't), you're too good a friend for that.

ASI 2000: For a summer and forever, you'll stay in my heart. Keep it real!

Rockwell 2000: Like Hadi wrote a year ago, "Good Luck—You are going to need it!"

Lisa, Viv, Mr. Wilner, Dr. K, Mr. & Mrs. Maq, Cilla, Mr. Scott, Mr. Robinson, Ms. Piana, and all my other mentors along the way: Thank you for the gifts of knowledge and perseverance which keep me moving... It's been a long four years that I'll never forget.

To Everyone I missed: Thank you for walking by my side.

There is absolutely no inevitability as long as there is a willingness to contemplate what is happening.

The struggle itself towards the heights is enough to fill a man's heart. - Albert Camus

Infinite gratitude and love to my family. There are no words to adequately describe the love that I feel for you guys. Thanks for three incredible years. I truly appreciate all the sacrifices you have made. You have shown me such love.

To my friends and teachers — Here's to the laughs shared, the obstacles overcome, the unforgettable memories we have made. Thanks for challenging me to open my mind and my heart.

The surest thing is that we are riders, and though none too successful at it, guiders... there is our wildest mount, but though it runs unbridled off its course, and all our blandishments would seem defied, we have ideas yet that we haven't tried. - Robert Frost

To all my peers who have helped me (or put up with me, your choice) through these long years, I thank all of you. For all the times I heard "Oh no, she's mad" or "Watch out don't make her mad" I must say "it's not you, it's me".

Those who have stuck by me and supported me and been my advocates. To all the teachers that believed in me and pushed me to believe in "my potential" and myself. Thank You. Mr. McGraw, Cauz, Dr. Moore, Coach Mo, The Maqs.....you know who you are.

To the class of 2001, from four years to one-we made it, we survived Andover.

To all of our classmates who are not with us on the great lawn- we haven't forgotten you. We still love you.

To all of my friends who have been with me all four years- my Stimson girls who started out across the Knoll. My Hale babies who moved away. You all are my pride and joy. I thank you all for who you have helped me become.

Last but most certainly not least- my mother for the never-ending river of confidence, the words of acceptance and those gentle nudges towards greatness.

Most of all to my boys- the Varsity Hockey Team. I just want to say I Love You Guys Too. Y'all are too cute for words.

to my triad - Always remember the Pink ape. It will keep you safe.

My best friends in the whole wide world (minus Des). Friends to the end.

Thank you Mom, Dad, and Eric for all the love and support.

Ly: From two doors down to roommates, to down the hall, thanks for always being there for the good and bad

Charlie: I had a damn good time shootin' the breeze with you for the past four years. Keep speaking your mind; it's funny

Spence: Rowing can sure build friendships, and I'm glad my friendship is with you. On and off the water, you are the man

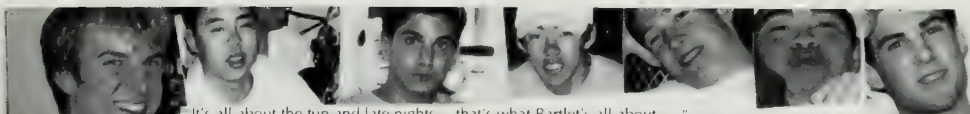

Caitlin: You made my experience here an experience worth remembering, and don't you forget I said that Meg and Kate: You two are great friends. I don't know why you hung around me :)

Kimball: Quiet, yet decisive, you've always impressed me with your heart and strong will. Don't ever lose that

It's all about the fun and late nights - that's what Bartlet's all about Three years at Bartlet, and let me say this much - i'm a changed man. It couldn't of happened without the help of few people though

Bartlet Seniors '01 --- MoanNugs, Schmitter Tork, Moi Kamakazie, Idle Chunger, Nakkkker, Karmpufi, BRAD, Chase, Darci, Raptor, Cropp, PAA, Wes, Jacobs, and Chinese wanna-be Ira

Teachers --- Mr Curry, Mr Wilmer, Mr Thomas, Mr Walter, Dr Warsaw

To the future of Bartlet --- you best be keepin' the tradition alive!!!! i'm looking at you, Franchot and Chewy!

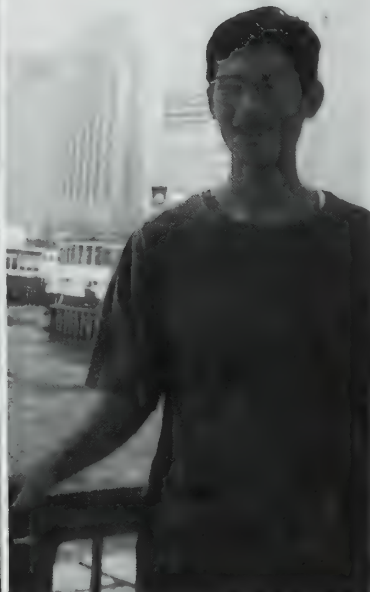

To the past seniors of Bartlet --- Yorty, Sinex, Scriven, Orlo, we've done a good job eh?

And to the rest of ya --- thanks for everything, whoever I ever hung out with or talked with over the phone - it's been really chill

And finally, I need to thank my family, my mom and my bro John - I will never forget my experience at Andover

Nathaniel Shiu

Rather than leave a long cryptic message,
I'd just like to leave a short note thanking all those who made this experience what it was. There is no fancy way to say how much I've appreciated the last four years.
Best wishes to all.

without your support.

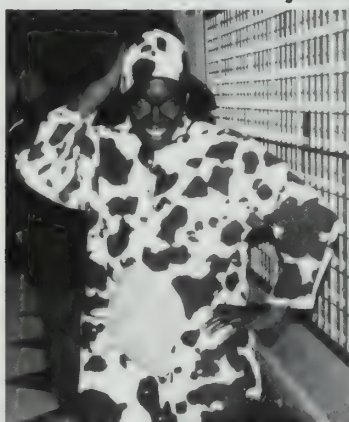

Pease House: Nate, Lyle, Martin,
Graham, Gavin, Jimmy, Frau, Parker,
Ruprecht, the bear (and Misty) -
You guys are my brothers (and

KEVIN SAMUEL SINCLAIR

It was almost yesterday that I arrived at Andover as a new student: thirteen-years-old and living on third floor Rockwell South. Now I am a senior, preparing to graduate and maybe even go to college. I can't believe it. I can't believe that my time here is over. I refuse to believe that it is time to move on. These four years meant more to me than any other time of my life and I don't want to let go.

It's funny, but despite the fact that I have never worked harder than I have at PA, I would not trade a moment of my time here for the world. After all of the good times and even the bad times, I am a better person for being here. How lucky am I that I had this wonderful opportunity? Thank you to all of the people who have helped me along the way.

Coach Mo, Coach Bernieri, Coach Gorham, Coach Efinger, and Coach Sung - you have taught me more about character and determination than you could ever possibly know. I can safely attribute my entire work ethic to what I learned from you. Thank you.

Chuck, Brian, and Mr. McGrail - I matured a lot in Taylor. Thank you for taking the time to help me through the rough spots. I will always appreciate the way that you affected my life.

Mr. Cline - Thank you for the opportunity to perfect your dorm. You have no idea how special this year has been for me.

Taylor Hall, Classes of '99 and '00 - Manatee, Evans, Riehl, Monte, Rip, Rohan, K, Manky, Kyle, Kurs, Marcus, Kappy, Stef de Stef, Moger - I always looked up to you guys and respected you. Best wishes.

Taylor Hall, Classes of '01 and '02 - Tags, Colin, Berner, BBSH, Groves, Frisch, Josh, Neuwerth - I had a great time living with you guys. All the memories... Thunderdome, The Cooking Club, 5 AM trips to Dunkin Donuts, A few inexplicable holes in the wall...

Peace House, Class of '04 - O'Shea, Jason, Enoma, Derrick, Uzo, and Jeff - You guys are awesome. Don't do anything that I wouldn't do.

Andover Football '99 and 2000 - I loved football. It's all about the rings. Enough said.

The Wrestling Team - I learned more about commitment and hard work in the wrestling room than anywhere else in Andover.

Mom, Dad, and Kelly - Thank you for your support. I love you.

The Class of 2001 - "What a long strange trip it's been" - The Grateful Dead

"Ability may get you to the top, but it takes character to keep you there..." - John Wooden

MOM: DAD ~ I am blessed to have you in my life. Infinite love for this opportunity and all you have given me. I love you so much...

MOM, ANSHU, ANJALI ~ Thank you for your love & support, I can never say I love you enough.

MY TEACHERS ~ esp. Mr. Rip, Mr. Mag, Dr. Pascucci ~ You have all inspired me in so many ways. Thank you for your passion & kindness.

TO MY FRIENDS ~ Thank you for every moment you have shared with me. I will always remember and be grateful for your love. All My Love esp. to:

EEW, ABB, EAM, CFH, LMC, JAB, LH, KES, TUV, RAC, HH, DYL & HDJ

MMM, REW, & MMC ~ There are no words... I love you always.

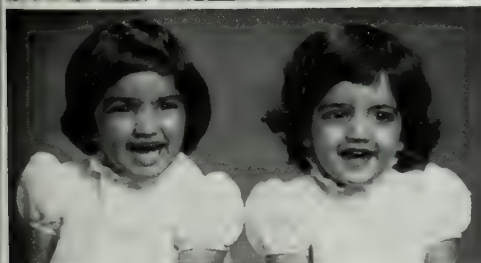

Smita ~ The fights & laughs & tears... You'll never know what you mean to me. Love you forever, Smita.

Smita

To Amita: I am so lucky to have you in my life. You've always been the one to laugh at my jokes, even when they weren't funny, and you're the only one who knows what I'm feeling, even when I'm not showing it. When we go our separate ways I'll miss you terribly. You are my best friend, and I love you. Don't ever forget how beautiful you are.

To Mom and Dad: Thank you for putting up with me. They don't call me "The Terror" for nothing. You have always been wonderful parents, and even with a thousand miles separating us, I never once felt alone thanks to you. I love you with all my heart. Thank you so much.

To Mousiji, Anshu, and Anjali: These past seven years have been so special because I had you to share it with. Mousiji, if only everyone was as kind and good-natured as you are, the world would be a much happier place. Anshu and Anjali, you are both so strong and you can do anything that you want to, remember that.

To My Friends: You are all the craziest, strangest, and funniest people I know. Thank you so much for letting me be a part of your lives. These past four years have been unforgettable, and it's because of you guys. But don't think for a minute that this is goodbye, because you only make friends like these once in a lifetime. I love you all.

Special Thanks to: Dr. Pascucci, Mr. Williams, Dr. Fan, Ms. Murata, Mr. Mundra, and Mr. Crawford.

I MISS MY DOG!

Graham Smith

Well, it has been four years since I sent in my application. I can't say I haven't enjoyed them but if you asked me upper year, I'm not sure what I would've said. Four years of classes, four years of sports, four years of dorms ...

America House:

Ha! That was a fun year. I should've enjoyed being a freshman more than I worried about being older. To everybody from A House: Good luck, hope you all will never change.

Pease House:

That was a long year. There were bumps in the road that I could've done without, but you're all good guys and we had some really good times. Good luck to all of you; I'm sure we'll catch up later.

Newman House:

Despite probation, The whole Tripp thing, and Jeff Diamond, I had a damn good year. Joe - Thanks for being a funny POS. Britton - Good Luck, I know you'll be successful.

Foxcroft:

First time in a big dorm and I love it. Good luck wherever you all go. To the Seniors: You're the best group of guys I've been around. Uppers: Stay out of trouble!

Martin: Thanks a lot for everything. We stuck together for four years and I'm very glad we did. We'll definitely keep in touch.

Mom and Dad - Thank you for everything that you have done for me. I would have never gone through this without your support. I love you.

Youjin - You have been a lovely and wonderful sister for me. Thanks ... I love you ... ^^

To my grandparents - For your support throughout, I thank you.

To Craig - House Counselor for 3 years, English Teacher, and Friend, I am grateful for having known you. Thank You for everything you've done for me. One of the greatest people I have ever met.

To Doc - Thanks for the support and advice that you have given me throughout my stay here.

To Mrs. Quattlebaum - What can I say ... I don't know if I would have made through all this without you and your support and guidance. I am thankful for everything. I'll keep in touch.

Dr. Dalton, Mr. McCann, Ms. Murata, Mr. Wilmer - Thank you for your care and guidance.

To Bishop boyz 01' - Grier (my roommate - thanks for a great year), Pepe, Will, Gino, Sac, Theo, Eugene, Gavin, Austin, Steve, Nate, Lyle, Navey: thanks for making this place bearable.

To Bishop boyz of the past - Eugene Cho, Fowlah, Iletch, T-Dunn, G-dukes, Dzaba, Jimbo, Aisenberg, Hartley, and DONG: I miss you guys ... thanks ...

To All My Friendz - Chungler, Shinner, Kwaak, Nakker, Kawakami, Josh R., Andrew Mac, Winslow, Kareem, Jason C., Albert, Dougherty, Pearson, Kings C., Captain Brax and Wardo, Joe L: Will miss you all ... Keep in touch ...

To my Asians - Jason P., Jerry, Chyou, Eric, Jon, Laurie, Christine, Helen, Eugenie, Jeehae, and everyone that I missed: Thanks. Love you all, I'll be around ...

And Finally, my bros back home - Jaewoo, Hosung, Dongkeun, Chong, Wonsung, Daegyu, Taehoon, Brian, Dukhwan, Wonjae, Taekwon, Byunghoon, Jina, Gayoung, Yoonmi, Leehee: I miss you guys so much, thanks for supporting me for the past 3 years. We'll be friends for life. And Everyone that I've missed - don't blame my heart, blame my mind. You know I love ya ...

PEACE OUT ...

I express my deepest gratitude to Mrs. Pryde, for teaching me the importance of elegance and to Dr. Perrin, for showing me the meaning of elegance. Thanks to my best friend Mike Ashley-Rollman, you've always been there for me with a warm smile and a joke. "New out to Rockwell 97-98, Aaron Hsieh, Benjamin J.C. Baucom, Al-Hussein Dahya and Eric Feeny--four years, guys! Can you give it?" I remember matriculation as clearly as if it were yesterday. It's been an honor to know you all. May our destinies cross again. To Olive, Lizzy, Sethy, Scott, Marianna, Kate, Lui and Spencer--you've been awesome friends. I'll check back on you guys. :-)

Mom and Dad: I was never one for sentimental, flowery speech—but I love you.

Annie: Thanks for all the care packages, Valley updates, and dance info. It's rough being a Sud girl, but we're in it together.

Rohan: One of my biggest regrets about leaving home was missing our late night line-up. Keep clueing me in on the Simpsons.

To the Maqubelas, Ada, and Dr. Dalton: Chatting in the common room, eating popcorn, playing Trivial Pursuit—you guys were the ones who got me through the rough times.

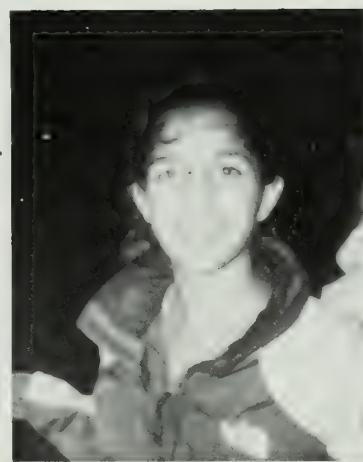

To Mr. Crawford: Thanks for teaching me to think.

Al-humdulillah Rabiya al-amin. Mom and Dad, you've done your best to mold me into a good person and I thank you for everything. I love you both - except when you're mean to me (hahaha). Emmett and Eliot, I wouldn't be who I am if it weren't for your supporting me, your love, and keeping me in check - thanks and love. To the rest of the TRIO (Brad and K.C.) I expect nothing but great things from both of you. Thanks for the great advice and always having my back. Sean and Bronson, nobody na romp wit us cause we da real shatta dem - ya don't know. To all my other boys (especially Spencer and Charlie) chilling with you guys has made my four years here fun and I'll never forget it. It seems like yesterday that I was filling out my Andover application, now I'm writing my college apps. I want to say thank you to my family, especially my father, for convincing me to come to PA. Mom, Dad, Ali, Dina and Tarek, I love you all and I've thought about you every day. To all the Rockwell Boys - I don't think I'll ever meet a weirder bunch of guys, but you made my first year here a memorable one. To the Bartlet Boyz - What can I say? I couldn't have made it this far without you. Marker, Shinner, Baba, Robin, Nakker, Chung, Brad, Ham, Rob, Tourk, Scatt, Chase, Paa, Croppa, Wes, and Zack - the most chill Bartlet Boyz. - We had a great dorm and a lot of fun together. I'll miss you. To the Bartlett Uppers and Loweres - Now that we're leaving, you have to keep the Bartlet tradition alive. Josh, Kluge, Scharf, Winslow, Perlin, and McKinnon - We've had some fun and I know I'll see you down the line (I hope we didn't hurt you too bad during Bartlet v. Foxcroft). Dr. Keller - It's hard to believe any one could ever give you an M.D. I hope you never grow up, you're too funny. Mr. McMurray, Ms. Goetze, and Dr. Avery - I especially want to thank you, I appreciate everything you taught me. Above all, I want to thank Mr. Kip., I have never had, and I doubt I will ever have, a teacher as knowledgeable, insightful, or exciting as him. Mr. Kip, believe it or not, I really was listening to you a lot more than you think. Finally, to the class of 2001 - I want to say goodbye and I wish you all the best of luck.

To PA.
It has been less than two months since my first day at PA, but this place has given me everything. Two months ago I would not believe it if someone told me, "This IS a place to be." But it is. I am so lucky to be here.

To CD30,
Our time in CD is one of the best times in my life. I miss the Toh-Ma-Hin+ where we hung out every morning. I miss every silly game and talk that we had. I miss so many things, but, more than everything else, I miss all of you. For wherever I go and whoever I become, I know I can never find friends like you.

Maybe we only live once, maybe we only live one life at a time, but if I could teach everyone one thing, I'd teach them to enjoy every moment. Mom, you're my light. Dad, you're my angel. Nothing's comin' my way that we can't handle. Lexy ~ we'll always have Paris! Pattyann ~ Good times, bad habits, and a whole lotta therapy make it all worthwhile. To all my guys ~ Ryan, don't worry too much, someday you'll approve. Cody, you rock from Sal's to McD's you taught me to just let it be, and to love as well and often as possible. Tad, what can I say? What good times we've had... what good times. Steve, you are too cool for words. Someday I hope I know as much as you do. JC, we've got a lot to learn, still. J, I love you babe, but sometimes I don't wanna know! Josh, we've had fun times, rough times, and everything in between, but I'll always be there. To everyone else ~ I love you guys!!!

Mom, I love you so much. Thank you for always being my mummy Charles, thanks for all the insight on how to handle Phillips...uhh...I hope it worked and Maudoo, I would have slept through every Saturday, and missed out on doing my homework if it wasn't for your furry forever-puppy bum on my pillow every morning...so thank you too.

And to the rest of my little angels: Kristina, I still think that you are vere fun and I am so glad that you decided to come a gen. Sarah, you'll always be my babygirl I can't envision Phillips without you, and M, you kept me sane when nobody else co.

I didn't know my heart had the capacity to love so many people so much. Maybe that's what I was supposed to take from here, so Phillips, Thank you too.

and Siegfried, I'll see you at la guardamer xxx

Mom+Dad- Words will never be able to provide the proper thanks you deserve. All you've done is sacrifice for me the past 18 years. I thank you with all my heart. I hope I made you proud. Drew+Matt- Thanks for all your support, always be yourselves. Chuck- Thanks for all your time, support, and most of all friendship. Timmy D- fish, I hope some day you loose all the baby fat. Thanks for always being there, you deserve the very best. Brax- You taught a country boy a whole lot, I'll always be grateful. Gino+Darci- It's been great growing up with you guys, there have been so many good times. Chase+Dougherty- A-House and Newman, you guys taught me how to have a good time. Mead- It's been great playing with you, take it easy on the girls wherever you end up. Berg- You moody bastard, keep on smiling. Mr.Gurry- Thank you for all the lessons in the classroom and the rink, you've taught me more than you'll ever know. Courtney- I admire you for putting up with me for three years. There will always be a place in my heart for you.

To Mummy and Dad: You were there when I needed to be pushed and when I fell, you always picked me up and loved me the same. I am where I am because of you. I love you.

To Hunter, Taylor, Skylar, Walker, Parker, Summer, Chandler, and Keifer: You guys have always made me smile and your love is unconditional. Never forget how truly incredible you each are. I will always be a phone call away.

To Greg: Where do I start? You are the most amazing person I have ever met; you are one of those people who reaffirms my faith in people. You have changed me more than you will ever realize. Whenever and wherever you need me, I will be there. Thank you for being there whenever I needed you. You always were.

Mom&Dad - I don't think I could have made it all these years without you there to give advice, to criticize, to sympathize, and to act as my scapegoats. I will always be indebted to you (in more ways than one).

Lia - You, my playmate, my confidante, my mother, my best friend, my enemy, and the only sister a girl could want—how can I thank you enough?

Julia - So many memories. Always remember: "Why go for the TA when you can have the professor?" Kindergarten, sci-team, deep college discussions, and rowing our hearts out (2K's baby, yeah!). Don't ever lose your flare, your sass, your confidence!

Katie&Eryn - I only wish I'd met you guys earlier. Never forget those movie nights (or should I call them Oh-My-Gosh-I-Need-A-Man nights?).

At least one of us succeeded :)! Stay sexy, blond, and beautiful, and keep in touch.

Everyone else - I love you all! Thank you for teaching me how to have fun (and how to avoid doing my work).

To my amazing teachers: Thank you for everything. Special thanks to Dr. Watt (since I always thought I'd hate physics), Mr. Barry (for making math enjoyable), Dr. Q (for being you), Mr. Wilmer (I never learned so much in 2 terms of French), and Luc (for being a coach and a friend at the same time). Katie, you have been there forever, the sister I never had, always giving me the unexpected and leading me on adventures. I will always be just through the trees.

Mom, Dad, Adam, thank you for being there. I would not be who I am without you. I love you.

Becky, for fifteen years of friendship, even through those awkward stages, thank you. I hope for many more years and much more laughter.

Winslow, here's to having someone who understands when you want nothing more than to run away. Don't let anything stop you. You always know where to find me.

Emily, I don't know what I would have done without you. Keep writing, keep dreaming, don't ever give up on anything. You know my door is always open.

James, I have learned so much from you, never forget our brunches.

Tim, there are no words to thank you. I wouldn't be here without you. Here's to many more firsts.

My sweet Jeff, you continue to teach me so much. You are, as you always have been, an angel. With every piece of everything I am, I love you. May God keep you safe.

Well, I've been in this place for four years and it's time to say goodbye. There are soooooo many people to thank and I know I will miss a name or two. So I'll say I love you and I will never forget you all.
To My Family of Blood: Thank you all for all that you have done and everything you have helped me with. Mommy, thank you for being there with me every step of the way: whether it's riding the bus to little league, dragging me to music lessons, or driving rentals to make it to my games, I know you'll be there. Daddy, your thirst for knowledge, love of sports, and desire for adventure have extended to me in my life choices and mindsets. Brandon, you were my first roommate. I was there when you first started playing video games. I have confidence and faith in whatever you do, do your thing kid. Run it all next year. Grandma, Auntie Sonya, Valencia, Asucion, Nina, I love you all.
To My PA Family: You all have made this the most amazing four years of my life. Sheena, you went from being a basic stranger to someone I will never forget. Keep your head straight and do your thing. Malik, I feel like I have seen you grow up, hold down T-House for me kid. P.A. Football- I take so much from you as a whole. All of the coaches, trainers, and especially the players past and present, I shall cherish the memories of joys and the pains of defeat. Beat EXETER!!!! All my other peeps: Andrew, Josh, Steph, Kia, Shanna, Raquel, Berg (SKYNY!!!), T-House, Eugene, Ward, CAMD. And my peeps from the past Lewis, Michelle, Sharon, Gil, Tamica, Mo-Mo, Marco, Joe, Jason.
It's all love people. Do your thing and look out for those people that are most important to you and we'll all be aight!!!!!! I am leaving this school but I'm just entering the world ya'll. Watch out cause ima be here forever, keep your eyes open. PEACE, I'M OUT!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Natalie Wombwell

Mom- You are my mother, my best friend, my sister, my teacher, and my personal role model. If it wasn't for you I wouldn't even have been able to have this wonderful experience. I am who I am because of you. Thank you for your love, support, caring, teaching, discipline, and so much more. You have given me so much, I wish that there was some way for me to repay you. Thank you. I love you more than you can imagine. Dad- Even though you have been so far away, you have been in my heart every single day through my four years here. Thank you so much for your love and support. I don't think I could have made it through without you. I love you. Ellie- I can't believe that we have made it through these four years together. My experience here has been that much better because of you. I will always remember the tough times and the sad times, but most of all I will remember how much fun we had together. Every moment was endless laughter. Thank you for always making me smile and being my best friend throughout these four years. I love you so much, and I can't imagine what my life could be like without you in it. Lucy- It started out with French class, and everything grew from there. How could I have survived without you. You always had an answer that made everything OK. It didn't matter how upset I was, whatever you said made my problems go away. I feel so incredibly lucky to have you as a friend. Thank you for caring so much. I love you very very much! Natalie- No matter what we always had fun together. We had so many long talks about nothing at all, and about the most important things in life. Thank you so much for your help and support, and thank you for being there when I just needed someone to talk to. You have made my life here so much more wonderful. Thank you for being such a good friend, and I love you so much! Steve W.- Well, you have seen me through all my four years here. I wanted to thank you for your support and caring that you have given me with everything. You listened to me complain about everything, and always let me indulge my self with dancing in the living room. Thank you for adding to my wonderful experience. Dancers- We have had so much fun, I love you all!!

-Mark Twain

Mom, dad, and Eric- thank you for your love and support. I love you!
My friends- Four long years. I couldn't have made it without you all. The memories... Syd- my roomie, alumni, Aaron-maturity, maturity, maturity, the pranks, Hawaii, weird noises, woo-woo, hummm... Parf- you have always been there for me. The late nights, starbucks, food, tae-bo and more late nights. Alex-weird... Tucker girls- I love you guys! The many dance parties, and prank calls... good times. Soph, Sarah, KOC- driving it, off campus fun, and cruising the streets of Andover.
Soccer, B-ball, and LAX- You girls are the best. Play hard and win. Good luck!
My coaches and teachers- Your help and support has meant so much to me. Thank you.

I love and will miss you all!!

"The space between
Where you smile and hide
That's where you will find me if I get to go
The space between
The bullets in our fire fight
Is where I'll be hiding waiting for you
The rain that falls splashed in your heart
Ran like sadness down the window into your room
The space between our wicked lies is
The hope to keep safe from pain
Take my hand cause we are walking out of here
Right out of here is all we need dear
The space between
What's wrong and right
Is where you'll find me hiding
Waiting for you
The space between
The heart and mind
Is the space we'll fill with time"

To the Class of 2001:

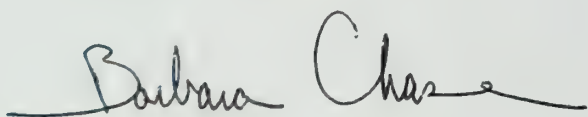

Thank you to Natalie Wadsworth and her staff for inviting me to write this letter to the Pot Pourri. This yearbook is a record of your time here and a repository for your memories. Your class is like no other, your experience at Andover unique, and the mark you have left distinctive. Yet as much as this book is a celebration of the Class of 2001, it also records the timeless spirit of Andover and of your place in the school's long history.

Down through the years, the faculty of Phillips Academy and Abbot Academy have always asked their students to reach for the highest standards in the classroom and in extracurricular pursuits. As you know, this is still true today. We also ask you to join a rich tradition of selflessness and shared values by giving of yourselves to the Andover community in the spirit of Non Sibi.

You responded by bringing your audience to its feet, sometimes literally -- for example, the orchestra's breathtaking performance with cellist Yo-Yo Ma. Spectators cheered as you won 140 athletic victories and brought undefeated seasons for nine different teams to Andover's record books in this past fall term alone. You offered splendid theatrical performances, musical programs, and art exhibits; and you made a difference in Andover and in surrounding towns with your inspiring community service. You conducted cultural events and raised money for many worthy causes -- including cooking and serving delicious Indian food to benefit earthquake victims in Gujarat through the good work of the Indo-Pak club. You brought us joy and humor season after season. We watched cross-country runners give their all as they pushed toward the finish under autumn-tinted leaves on the great lawn. We felt the joy of winter as we watched and sometimes mediated snowball fights and enjoyed snow sculptures. We experienced the exhilaration of rebirth as we felt the warmth of spring envelop us as we walked together across this beautiful campus. But the beauty of the campus, as much as it gives us pleasure, is nothing without the community of people who are settled here. With the faculty who taught you and the friends whose pictures grace this book, you created a real community here -- the kind of community that is all too rare.

I hope you will keep this community alive by staying in touch with your friends and teachers and the school and by living always by the ideals and principles you learned here. In short, we hope you will take the spirit of the Andover community with you and recreate it wherever you go. We wish you well, and we are proud of you.

Sincerely,

To the Students and Faculty,

The 2000-2001 Yearbook Board is proud to present the fruit of our labor, this year's Pot Pourri. We have strived during the process of its making to create a book that can serve as more than a catalogue of pictures, but as a compilation of shared experience, the glory, defeat, camaraderie, laughter and challenge that embody Andover. The moments captured in these pages cannot successfully represent our time here. However, we hope that they might serve as a tribute to the people that have made our journey remarkable. We believe that in your future, as you revisit this book, it might evoke the distinct magic of Andover in 2001. If so, we know that we have been successful.

To the class of 2001: We present this book both in honor of the culmination of our time here, but also as a tribute to the PA we leave behind, changed for our presence here. Each member of the 2001 class has contributed to this book by inspiring the creation of a record that speaks to us, both our collective and personal journeys. May each of you be proud of this passage, knowing that the spirit of '01 will always be possessed in the Andover legacy. The challenges and tragedy that we have overcome will not be soon forgotten-let the memory of those we've lost be remembered. As we depart, let us not soon forget the way in which we have touched one another lives-the spirit of our friends, peers, teammates and classmates will remain with us. No matter what path you take, always walk with love and reverence.

To the faculty and Mr. Driscoll: Thank you! Andover is what it is because of you. What you have given us inside and outside the classroom is priceless.

To the Pot Pourri Board: Thank You and Congrats! You should each be proud of what we have created. The nights of delirium that we have shared were worth it all along. Your energy, devotion, and high spirits made it come together. This 2001 book has been an experience, not just a project. To the '01-'02 board-Have Fun! The product of your hard work will be hugely rewarding. And don't worry...we'll be back. Don't get bopped! We'll miss you.

"Guys, the yearbook is due tomorrow. Just 65 more candid pages..."

-Natalie to the board

"Has anyone seen the sports editors?"

-Pot Board, '01

"It's simple... I hate Nate Beck."

-Casey

"Get forks for the pad thai NOW."

-Misty, Natalie, and Susie to the underclassmen

"Tyler, if you let me in, I'll give you my bra."

-Reed

"I have a five page paper to write and I have no clue who this person is. Let's just say they're dead."

-Hildog

"We have work to do. Leave us alone."

-Phillipian, '01

"Nate, put the shovel down."

-Misty

"It's been 45 minutes and they've walked past us 6 times. I don't think they're gonna find us."

-Sarah and Susie

"Has anyone seen a picture of Gavin?"

-Susie

"Add another to the Ross and Kate wall."

-Esther and Sarah

This is your first game, my child. I hope you win.
I hope you win for your sake, not mine.
Because winning's nice.
It's a good feeling.
Like the whole world is yours.
But, it passes, this feeling.
And what lasts is what you've learned.

And what you learn about is life.
That's what sports is all about. Life.
The whole thing is played out in an afternoon.
The happiness of life.
The miseries.
The joys.
The heartbreaks.

There's no telling what'll turn up.
There's no telling whether they'll toss you out in the first five minutes or whether you'll stay for the long haul.

There's no telling how you'll do.
You might be a hero or you might be absolutely nothing.
There's just no telling.
Too much depends on chance.
On how the ball bounces.

I'm not talking about the game, my child.
I'm talking about life.
But, it's life that the game is all about.
Just as I said.

Because every game is life.
And life is a game.
A serious game
Dead serious.

But, that's what you do with serious things.
You do your best.

You take what comes.
You take what comes
And you run with it.

Winning is fun.
Sure.
But winning is not the point.

Wanting to win is the point.
Not giving up is the point.
Never being satisfied with what you've done is the point.
Never letting up is the point.
Never letting anyone down is the point.

Play to win.
Sure.
But lose like a champion.
Because it's not winning that counts.
What counts is trying.

Those who I haven't thanked...austin-since the first night we've met, we've gotten along :) there were triad days as Hamlet and Ophelia, blindfolds, bday cake and dinners. We've grown apart and back together, been through ups and downs, but I've always known I could trust you, and regardless, we had one another. Friends like you are once in a lifetime. Keep your head up and don't go too far. I'll miss you. Sklar- Thank you- for putting up with me when no one else could...for knowing what I didn't and having patience, for not begrudging me my confusion. LIESL BEECHER-FLAD

I turned your pages and soon got lost in them. I discovered lines between the words, multiple plots crossing over, and yet, when I paused to consider and understand, the pages turned on, as if riffled by a swift, unseen hand. Your story moved on, too quickly for me to read.

And then one day, I discovered it was you turning the pages. That neither my touch nor my need to read you would slow the pace of your story and the turning leaves of your days.

I opened your book that June evening and thought, Ah, I know this story, I've kept it close for nine months. I know you, I said, lifting you up. I know who you are. Those were my first words to you.

I turned your opening pages and sighed at all you had to teach. There in your first chapter was the key to majesty and love, the meaning of it all. Holding you close, I thought, If only the whole world could read this book! If they, too, could touch these pages, and know this story, wars would end and love would begin. For everyone, everywhere.

And I knew that I knew.

I turned your pages. You were too precious to loan out. I guarded you jealously, handing you over only to the few people I trusted, and they, too, held you up, exclaiming over you, marveling at your cover running soft fingers down your spine, wondering aloud what secrets you might contain. And when the day was through, it was I who had the privilege of taking you home. I knew then, as I know now, that I possessed in those days a wondrous thing: the simple answer to everything, a great gift, the soft truth.

Many pages have turned, whole chapters have flown by, unread to me, and read, perhaps, by no one. And yet, sometimes I find you lying open, your pages stilled, and I stop to read, eyes running swiftly down the lines. Hurry, I whisper, quickly now, quickly before the pages turn again.

And I know now that I may never know.

For you are a mystery. You always were. Your pages turn on an on, always forward, never back, and clues once missed cannot be retrieved. It was folly to believe I would never lose the thread of your story, that I could divine the outcome before it came. And you my young enigma, I read on, where and when you hold out a passage, a line, a word, just for me. You are the author.

And with pleasure and joy, I read on.

Yesterday, a child came out to wonder
 Caught a dragonfly inside a jar
 Fearful when the sky was full of thunder
 And tearful at the falling of a star
 And the seasons, they go round and round
 And the painted ponies go up and down
 We're captive on the carousel of time
 We can't return, we can only look Behind from where we came
 And go round and round, in the circle game

A Recipe for Success "That's Amazing!"

JESSICA Susan Watson

Find:

1 nice girl from Ohio

1 nice boy from Wisconsin

Put them together in Chicago and raise the room temperature briefly. Reduce heat to 98.6 degrees F. for 9 months. Cut a small transverse opening in the sack and remove baby (feet first!). Ignore the round, orange, blotchy head.

Nurture with Daddeh and Yadjia. When below freezing, bundle baby up, except for eyes and right thumb, and stroll outside on the deserted streets in the dark. (Notice: if baby's nose starts to run, spread Vicks Vapo-Rub on baby's chest and stuff sleeper with newspaper). Be careful not to put baby's bare fee on the grass.

Transfer toddler to Columbus, Ohio, and stitch forehead.

Add Emily (an "E", not a "J"?) and spread makeup on new carpet. Try to keep father's hands away from chicken pox scabs.

Transport preschooler to Weldon, North Carolina. Stir in James (the IV, of course) and Julia ("Jooya", the blonde). Remove one and one-third fingers and start piano lessons. Move to a flat countertop (Rocky Mount, North Carolina) and let settle. Feed, water, and cover with love from Grandma and Grandpa in California and Oma and Opa in Wisconsin. Add 2 dogs, 3 cats, and 4 birds. Discard ferrets, hamsters, and fish. Let the trumpet blow and throw in softball. Fling down the Autobahn, dip in Zimbabwe, and rehear at Baldhead Island. Surround in white wallpaper and place under a half circle window without curtains.

Share teen with Phillips Academy for 3 years ("Thank You!"). Add wheels and a helmet and spin her legs. If wheels are removed, don't worry, the legs will still run.

Blend well with with "Brewster". Let cook (an Epicurious goddess), eat (dressing on the side, please), and drink (water with lemon). Sprinkle with smiles to see (all those bright, white teeth!), kisses to taste (usually salty), hugs to feel (some parts hot and some parts cold), chocolate to smell (Godiva preferred), "du hast" to hear (loudly), and Tiffany's to wear (silver only). Keep Jesser warm (in New England?).
"Come on!"

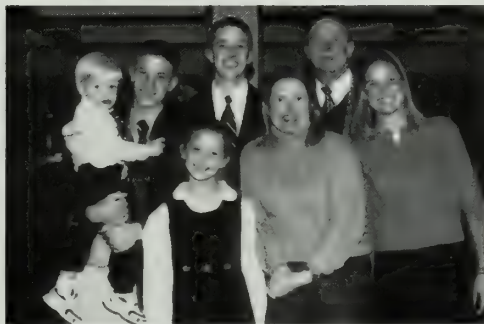

Servings: This dish will be enjoyed by and unlimited number of people!

To laugh often and much;
 To win the respect of intelligent
 People and the affection of children;
 To earn the appreciation of honest critics
 And endure the betrayal of false friends;
 To appreciate beauty, to find the best in others;
 To leave the world a bit better, whether
 By a healthy child a garden patch
 Or a redeemed social condition;
 To know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived.
 This is to have succeeded.

Of four years at PA can truly be penned,
It's a Non Sibi world of Renaissance men.
In the classroom, the field, and even the rink,
Seeking strength and achievement and learning to think.

Creating Art with Crivelli and Stella,
Living in Stearns with all of the fellas.
Reading Hamlet and Ernest for literary critique,
Grappling with physics and all its mystique.

Cheering a victory for President Bush,
Mastering calculus with one extra push.
Conquering Choate with a field goal kick,
Wielding a hockey or mean lacrosse stick.

Four years of German, and spring expeditions
To Deutschland itself, in two repetitions.
Corbin's PA adventures have been many and bold
But are only the start- future tales to be told.

With the lots of love,

"HOW I DID IT"
(Young Lauren Miller)

How can I say in a few minutes what it's taken me a lifetime to understand? You got it, sister friend. I'm yours, all of me, what else can I say? As I said when you were born.....look at that sweet smile.....and...do you want to talk about physical strength...do you want to talk about sheer muscle...do you want to talk about the Olympian ideal? You are a God!...you are NOT evil....you are GOOD!

This is a nice girl.
This is a good girl.
This is a mother's angel.
And I want the world to know once and for all, without shame, that WE LOVE HER!

And as Young Lauren said..."I live because this half-crazed genius has given me life.....but.....for the love of God - stop patting my head!".....Cripes!

It seems like only yesterday, young Lauren was entering Andover..I can still hear her sweet voice as I closed the door behind me, leaving her dorm.....'Let me OUT, get me OUT OF HERE, what's the matter with you people? I was joking - don't you know a joke when you hear one? Open this door or I'll kick your rotten heads in.....MOMMY!!!!

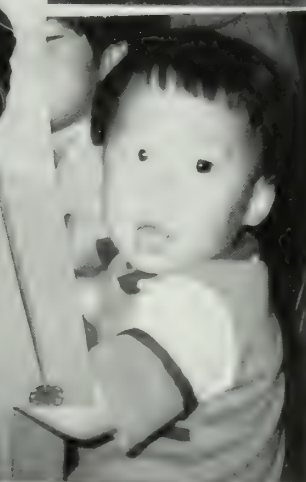

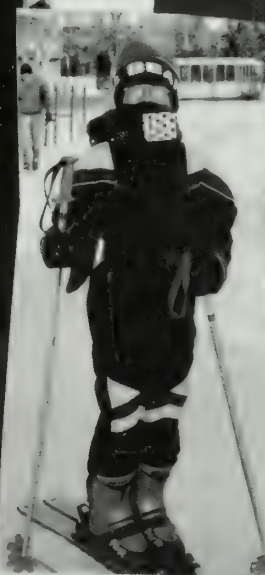

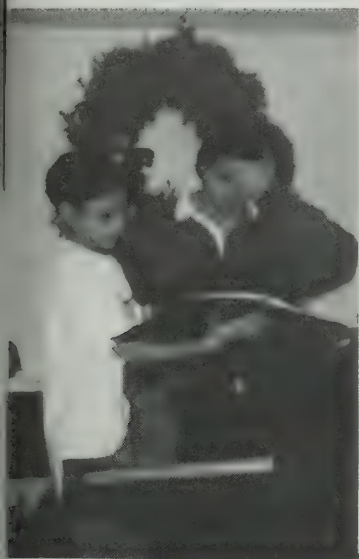

What was Lauren's secret to success - some Ovaltine, perhaps? Well, that would go without saying. (She must have been the tallest one in her class.) She realized IT.... COULD... WORK!!.....it was her...Destiny, Destiny, No Escaping Destiny!!!

Now, in all seriousness..go forward into that big college world, my little bunny, and remember.....choose the path less traveled. (And always, always keep a copy of "Young Frankenstein" in your video library for those days when the walk down that path could use just a little more Sunshine.)

From Mommy, your wonderful family and all our great friends.....CIGARS!!!!!!!!!!!!

Congratulations!
And
Best Wishes in Your Future

We are so proud of you and what you have accomplished.

Thank you for all that you have been, and have given us, throughout these past eighteen years.

As our life as your parents continues, we will miss "our" creation.

Yet it is with confidence, and ever-growing love for you, that we look to the future, and the continuing in you that commences.

Our love always,

"Annie, the fir tree that the Nolans had cherished with the waterings and manurings, had long since sickened and died. But this tree in the yard – this tree that men chopped down ... this tree that they built a bonfire around, trying to burn up its stump – this tree lived!

It lived! And nothing could destroy it.

Once more she looked at Florry Wendy reading on the fire escape

"Goodbye, Francis," she whispered.

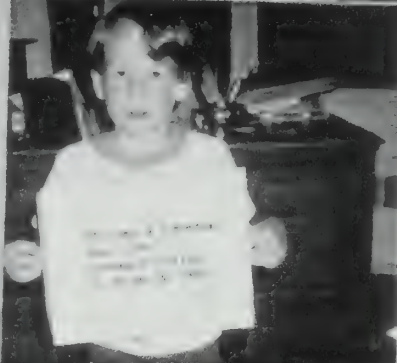

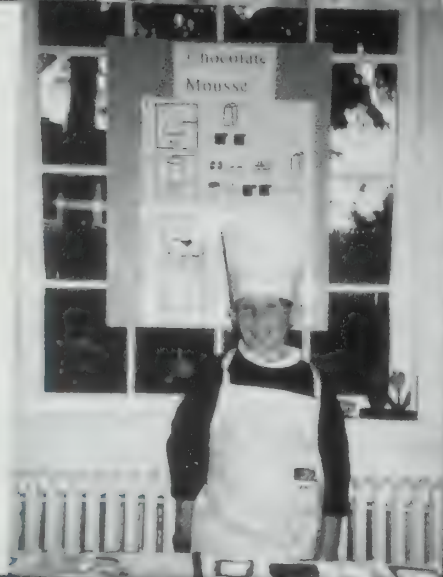

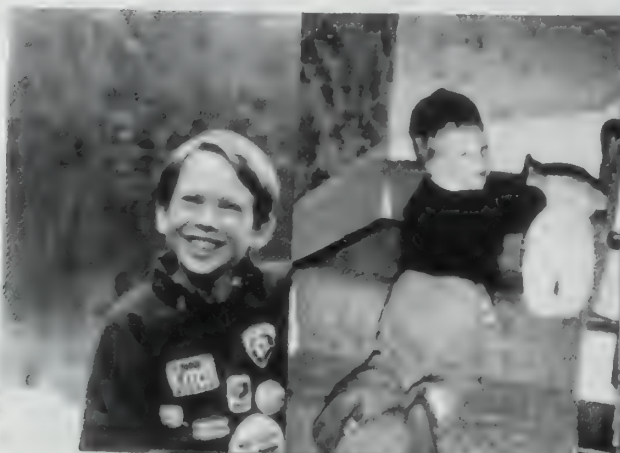

She closed the window.

"Oh the places you'll go, today is your day!
Your mountain is waiting, so get on your way!" -- Dr. Suess
